Taliban Positive on Women's Rights, Girls' Edu

KABUL - The two-day talks between Afghan government officials and Taliban representatives in Qatar concluded on Sunday without reaching any agreement but both the parties expressed their views on peace and stability in Afghanistan.

The dialogue was organised in Doha by Canadian-based organisation Pugwash Council on Saturday and Sunday. An eight-member Taliban delegation took part in the talks and discussed issues relating to peace and stability in Afghanistan with a 20-member Afghan government delegation.
