You might back off from a conversation to avoid telling someone too honestly that you think they are wrong. The Moor’s monthly theme in this instance is to express your vulnerability. It’s fine to sink into your emotions and avoid conflict even if they think that you are wrong. The sooner you can acknowledge your need to express yourself the more you will be able to deal with the most challenging situations that you face. Listen to what others have to say before you jump to any conclusions.
