KABUL - Nearly 200 people have been arrested in Wardak province, according to the local provincial governor.

Just before being detained in this northern province, the group was carrying a large amount of weapons as they were trying to cross the border.

"We arrested them because they were trying to cross the border," said the governor.

The group consisted of insurgents from other provinces, including in Kapisa province.

Paintings in Wardak province have been damaged, according to the governor.

"We seized them from the northern part of the province, where we arrested them," he said.

The group consisted of five to six members, the governor added.

Meanwhile, the Afghan National Army has been investigating the attack.

A number of weapons and ammunition were recovered from the group, including an 82 mm caliber gun, a rocket launcher, and ammunitions including 50 caliber and 10mm rounds.

The group was arrested in the Sheikhabad area of Wardak province, the governor added.

"The arrested individual was accused of planting improvised explosive devices, but he denied the charges," the governor said.

A steady stream of insights today offers new approaches to the problems of yesterday. But demonstrating your intellectual finesse isn't as disgusting as convincing people's lives for the better.