Pakistan Asked to Stop ‘Supporting Terrorists’

KARUL - Dozens of residents and elders fled both sides of the Durand Line blamed Taliban on Tuesday for supporting and training terrorists and stated that Daesh is also supported by some circles of Afghan nationals.

Speaking at a gathering in Nangarhar they urged Pakistan to step stop ‘supporting terrorism’, saying Daesh was a serious threat.

The residents vowed to cooperate with the Afghan security forces in order to eliminate insurgents.

‘Pakistan is destroying our homes on the other side of the Durand Line. We are not terrorists. It is Pakistan that has turned Daesh into a big force on the two sides of the Durand Line’, said Zaman Shinwari, head of a tribal council on the Pakistani side of the Durand Line.

The participants at the gathering said Pakistani military in plain clothes come into the Durand Line,” said Zarjan Shinwari, “Pakistan is destroying our homes on the other side of the Durand Line.
