For his part, Ghani said Asia was facing a new surge of terrorism, and that the region would fight the menace, "There is no good or bad in terrorism, there is only terrorism," he said, adding that insurgents all over the world, "will fight the menace with might and main," Ghani added.

President Ghani said war was not the solution for peace in the region and clearly stated that the solution must be a shared solution as shared responsibility “and the solution was that it be a discussion of how to approach the problem was that it be a discussion amongst the people, not among the countries but amongst the people,” President Ghani explained. This is his second visit to Afghanistan.

The visit follows an invitation by President Ghani to Prime Minister Sharif to attend the upcoming conference in Islamabad on May 13.

As a legitimate and elected government, we take pride in our people and will continue to work for the development of our country and the well-being of our people. As the supreme commander of the armed forces, I take full responsibility for national security and defense forces.

He added insurgents all over the world are fighting against Afghanistan, but we are fighting for the country with matching capability.

"This is not just for us. It is for the world and international community. We have imposed this war on us and it is necessary for us to continue this war more in this war and it is necessary to work for peace and tranquility in the future," the president said.
