EU Chief Brexit Negotiator Says Regretting Ongoing Brexit

DUBLIN - EU Chief Brexit Negotiator Michel Barnier said on Tuesday he regrets that Brexit is happening, but would have liked to have seen the UK remain in Europe with Ireland and all the 27 other countries of the bloc. However, while elaborating a speech, he said: "I would have liked to keep the upper and lower houses of Irish parliament. "The Irish, however, are saying," he added. Barnier said that while he regretted the Brexit nego- tiation project and identity destruction suffered by Britain, he kept on seeing its identity and making a name for itself in the world. "Some in large countries with im- portant past, like my own, do not think so, but this is not true," he added, citing former French prime minister Jean-Claude Juncker. Juncker's briefing session will help tackle some of the difficult issues on the ways forward, Michel Schufl, UN undersecretary general for UNAIDS executive director and Russian foreign minister said, "We are trying to put together an inclusive growth, distribu- tive, and sustainable growth, bringing not only to achieve equality, but also to improve the quality of life of the people in all countries."

CHINA, RUSIA, TURKEY TO HOLD TRITUMAL SUMMIT ANKARA - The Presidents of China, Russia, and Turkey will hold a trilat- eral meeting this week in Ankara, where they will discuss issues of the Astana process to solve the Syrian crisis, as well as other bilateral issues. The meeting organized by the vice president, will be held on Thursday.

The three leaders will par- take in a bilateral conference in Ankara on Tuesday, May 14 and merge the economic and commercial potential of the historic silk road, transport infrastructures, energy interconnections, etc.

G7 Finance Meeting Kicks Off with Focus on Inclusive Growth

BRUSSELS - Inclusive growth will be on top of the agenda of finance ministers of the Group of Seven (G7) mem- bers at their meeting on Thursday in the southeastern city of Bari. Italian Finance Minister Pier Carlo Padois and U.S. Treas- ury Secretary Steven Mnuchin met behind closed doors in the afternoon, while an offi- cial ceremony to welcome the other ministers was scheduled at the Petronelluzi theatre in the evening.

In the bilateral talks, Padois assured the U.S. counterparts the stock of non-performing loans in Italy's banking system would reach 12% of GDP in the short term, around 0.3% lower than the previous year's level.

EU Chief Brexit Negotiator Michel Barnier said on Tuesday he regrets that Brexit is happening, but would have liked to have seen the UK remain in Europe with Ireland and all the 27 other countries of the bloc. However, while elaborating a speech, he said: "I would have liked to keep the upper and lower houses of Irish parliament. "The Irish, however, are saying," he added. Barnier said that while he regretted the Brexit nego- tiation project and identity destruction suffered by Britain, he kept on seeing its identity and making a name for itself in the world. "Some in large countries with im- portant past, like my own, do not think so, but this is not true," he added, citing former French prime minister Jean-Claude Juncker. Juncker's briefing session will help tackle some of the difficult issues on the ways forward, Michel Schufl, UN undersecretary general for UNAIDS executive director and Russian foreign minister said, "We are trying to put together an inclusive growth, distribu- tive, and sustainable growth, bringing not only to achieve equality, but also to improve the quality of life of the people in all countries."

China, Russia, Turkey to Hold Trilateral Summit

ANKARA - The Presidents of China, Russia, and Turkey will hold a trilat- eral meeting this week in Ankara, where they will discuss issues of the Astana process to solve the Syrian crisis, as well as other bilateral issues. The meeting organized by the vice president, will be held on Thursday.

The three leaders will par- take in a bilateral conference in Ankara on Tuesday, May 14 and merge the economic and commercial potential of the historic silk road, transport infrastructures, energy interconnections, etc.

G7 Finance Meeting Kicks Off with Focus on Inclusive Growth

BRUSSELS - Inclusive growth will be on top of the agenda of finance ministers of the Group of Seven (G7) mem- bers at their meeting on Thursday in the southeastern city of Bari. Italian Finance Minister Pier Carlo Padois and U.S. Treas- ury Secretary Steven Mnuchin met behind closed doors in the afternoon, while an offi- cial ceremony to welcome the other ministers was scheduled at the Petronelluzi theatre in the evening.

In the bilateral talks, Padois assured the U.S. counterparts the stock of non-performing loans in Italy's banking system would reach 12% of GDP in the short term, around 0.3% lower than the previous year's level.

G7 Finance Meeting Kicks Off with Focus on Inclusive Growth

BRUSSELS - Inclusive growth will be on top of the agenda of finance ministers of the Group of Seven (G7) mem- bers at their meeting on Thursday in the southeastern city of Bari. Italian Finance Minister Pier Carlo Padois and U.S. Treas- ury Secretary Steven Mnuchin met behind closed doors in the afternoon, while an offi- cial ceremony to welcome the other ministers was scheduled at the Petronelluzi theatre in the evening.

In the bilateral talks, Padois assured the U.S. counterparts the stock of non-performing loans in Italy's banking system would reach 12% of GDP in the short term, around 0.3% lower than the previous year's level.