Anti-Corruption Efforts ‘Failing’ Due to Absence of Law: HOOC

Fakhri said MPs did not approve the anti-corruption law as they had dissolved the HOOC ahead of the draft being sent to them because there is no anti-corruption law in place. Six months ago the anti-corruption law was sent to parliament by President Ashraf Ghani but MPs failed to approve the law and instead moved to dissolve the High Office of Oversight and Anti-Corruption. The HOOC has now been dissolved.

KABUL - More than 9.5 million children under the age of five would be vaccinated by the Ministry of Public Health (MoPH) during the campaign that would start on May 9, police recovered nine different weapons, a large number of Kalashnikov bullets, and other MPs refused to do so. (Tolonews)

MPs Ask Govt to Clarify Why Weapons Kept in School

KABUL - The MoPH has not clarified why weapons were kept in schools.

Kunduz War Damages Civilian Houses

KUNDIZ - Following the reopening of Kunduz-Talhar Highway to traffic after seven days of heavy clashes between Afghan forces and the Taliban, a number of residents of Kunduz district said the war has damaged their houses and that government should launch a large-scale military operation to clear the areas of militants.

Pakistan’s Rights Commission’s Report a Farce: HOOC

KABUL - The HOOC meanwhile marked that all the MPs, only Remazad and Baktash Stanjah have registered their assets and other MPs refused to do so. (Tolonews)

MoF Adds 5.2bn Afis to this Year’s National Budget

The Finance Ministry spokesman Jawid Faisal meanwhile said that despite an increase in this year’s budget, a number of budgetary units are facing challenges in spending their allocated budget. "The cabinet’s decision is made according to the principles. We have added the increase to the budget in addition to addressing the requirements of the Ministry of Defense, it will add.

Senators Question UN Report on Kandahar Police Chief

KABUL - Lawmakers in the Wolesi Jirga (Lower House of Parliament) on Tuesday criticized the National Unity Government (NUG) for its “poorly thought out” peace policies and its “reluctance” to appoint a successor to the late head of the High Peace Council (HPC) Shyakh Qaani who died five months ago.

MPs Criticize Delay over Appointing HPC Chief

KABUL - MPs have said the HPC, as a peace facilitating body, has so far failed to make strides in accomplishing peace. "The government leadership has its internal disputes when it comes to appointments and nominations in higher levels and this issue cannot be solved," (PMOI-POL) said.

Iran, Afghanistan Double Trade Exchanges: Official

TEHRAN - Iran’s Foreign Ministry Spokesman Bahram Ghasemi underscored the need for all neighboring countries to support Afghanistan’s national sovereignty and prevent erosion and growth of terrorist groups in the region. Iran, Afghanistan doubled their semi said in an interview with Afghanistan’s Avas news agency on Saturday. (PMOI-POL) said.

Iraqi MPs Propose to Amend Budget as ‘Fiscal Fraud’

BAGHDAD - A number of lawmakers in the Parliament, called for a probe into massive fuel fraud this year.

Iranian Calendar (starting at March 21, 2016),” Afghans said.

The international human rights commission is monitoring all attacks under the control of the Afghan government across the country, and it is reporting that the issue is still alive after so many years. I doubt the report and it is vague," the MoPH’s spokesperson Mohammad Amin Farahani said.

In the recent cabinet meeting, government accepted to add 5.2 billion Afis to the national budget of the current fiscal year in order to address the needs of the Defense Ministry and a number of other sectors in accordance with the budget.

The cabinet’s decision is made in accordance with the budget principles. We have added the increase to the budget in addition to addressing the requirements of the Ministry of Defense, it will add. (PMOI-POL) said.

The Pakistani human rights commission has been monitoring all attacks under the control of the Afghan government across the country, and it is reporting that the issue is still alive after so many years. I doubt the report and it is vague," the MoPH’s spokesperson Mohammad Amin Farahani said.

The cabinet’s decision is made in accordance with the budget principles. We have added the increase to the budget in addition to addressing the requirements of the Ministry of Defense, it will add. (PMOI-POL) said.

"When the structure of an office is dissolved by parliament, then how can parliament approve a law by the dissolved office," the Wolesi Jirga voting secretary Abdu8 Qadir Zazai said. The parliament’s administrative board remarks, a number of MPs said they are ready to approve the law and register their assets in order to fight corruption. "Although nothing has been mentioned in Afghanistan’s law about MPs asset registration, it is a good move," MP Ghulam Farsi Mohammadi said.

The HOOC meanwhile marked that all the MPs, only Remazad and Baktash Stanjah have registered their assets and other MPs refused to do so. (Tolonews)

"The international human rights commission has been monitoring all attacks under the control of the Afghan government across the country, and it is reporting that the issue is still alive after so many years. I doubt the report and it is vague," the MoPH’s spokesperson Mohammad Amin Farahani said.

The cabinet’s decision is made in accordance with the budget principles. We have added the increase to the budget in addition to addressing the requirements of the Ministry of Defense, it will add. (PMOI-POL) said.

"The international human rights commission has been monitoring all attacks under the control of the Afghan government across the country, and it is reporting that the issue is still alive after so many years. I doubt the report and it is vague," the MoPH’s spokesperson Mohammad Amin Farahani said.

The cabinet’s decision is made in accordance with the budget principles. We have added the increase to the budget in addition to addressing the requirements of the Ministry of Defense, it will add. (PMOI-POL) said.

"The important reason for not approving the law by the MPs is that they would have to register their assets," said Fakhri. Parliament’s administrative board meanwhile said the HOOC was dissolved by MPs and that the draft anti-corruption law prepared by the anti-corruption office passed the necessary legal steps but was no longer valid following the dissolution of the HOOC.

"When the structure of an office is dissolved by parliament, then how can parliament approve a law by the dissolved office," the Wolesi Jirga voting secretary Abdu8 Qadir Zazai said. The parliament’s administrative board remarks, a number of MPs said they are ready to approve the law and register their assets in order to fight corruption. "Although nothing has been mentioned in Afghanistan’s law about MPs asset registration, it is a good move," MP Ghulam Farsi Mohammadi said.

"The international human rights commission has been monitoring all attacks under the control of the Afghan government across the country, and it is reporting that the issue is still alive after so many years. I doubt the report and it is vague," the MoPH’s spokesperson Mohammad Amin Farahani said.

The cabinet’s decision is made in accordance with the budget principles. We have added the increase to the budget in addition to addressing the requirements of the Ministry of Defense, it will add. (PMOI-POL) said.

"The international human rights commission has been monitoring all attacks under the control of the Afghan government across the country, and it is reporting that the issue is still alive after so many years. I doubt the report and it is vague," the MoPH’s spokesperson Mohammad Amin Farahani said.

"The international human rights commission has been monitoring all attacks under the control of the Afghan government across the country, and it is reporting that the issue is still alive after so many years. I doubt the report and it is vague," the MoPH’s spokesperson Mohammad Amin Farahani said.

"The international human rights commission has been monitoring all attacks under the control of the Afghan government across the country, and it is reporting that the issue is still alive after so many years. I doubt the report and it is vague," the MoPH’s spokesperson Mohammad Amin Farahani said.

"The international human rights commission has been monitoring all attacks under the control of the Afghan government across the country, and it is reporting that the issue is still alive after so many years. I doubt the report and it is vague," the MoPH’s spokesperson Mohammad Amin Farahani said.