KHOST CITY - construction work to develop a new school for teachers has been kicked-off in the eastern Paktika province, which was previously hit hard by the Taliban, the local teachers' community to great extent.

Deputy Governor Ataullah Faizi told Pajhwok Afghan News foundation for constructing the project had been laid, which would be built on 25 acres of land. The ceremony, he said, was being developed close to the capital.

8 ANA Soldiers Dead in Helmand Fighting

LASHKARGAH - At least eight Afghan National Army (ANA) soldiers were killed, four others wounded and two were taken hostage when Taliban fighters attacked an ANA check post on Wednesday night in Musa Qala district of southern Helmand province, an official said.

Mohammad Sharif, the district chief, told Pajhwok Afghan News that four ANA soldiers were also wounded and two were killed in the incident while fighting against the Taliban.

As per the ongoing operations, eight ANA soldiers were wounded and two others shot, said collateral that due to the Taliban attack, the government soldiers had to face a hard time.

A spokesman for the Ministry of Defense, told Pajhwok Afghan News National Security Council confirmed the attack on security post due to Taliban attack.

(More on P4)...(20)

Relents, Rebels in Civilian Bloodshed in Badakhsh Province

KABAUL - At least 17 suspected militants were killed, four others wounded and five others died of their gunshot wounds when Taliban fighters attacked ANA soldiers on Tuesday night in southern Badakhshan province.

A military official, said that investigations into the killing had been launched and police started raids to nab the killers.

As a result of the raid, conduct of the security forces, 17 suspected Taliban militants were killed and five of them died.

(More on P4)...(21)

17 Alleged Militants Dead in Badakhshan Violence

KABAUL - An alleged to North Westin zone's Shura area, Khost, according to security forces Thursday, at least 17 suspected militants were killed, four others wounded and five dead.

This is the latest attack in which another 25 suspected Taliban militants were killed and three of their handouts were destroyed.

(More on P4)...(22)

Outlook

Work on Paktika Township Scheme for Teachers Launched

KHOST CITY - construction work to develop a new school for teachers has been kicked-off in the eastern Paktika province, which was previously hit hard by the Taliban, the local teachers’ community to great extent.

Deputy Governor Ataullah Faizi told Pajhwok Afghan News foundation for constructing the project had been laid, which would be built on 25 acres of land. The ceremony, he said, was being developed close to the capital.

8 ANA Soldiers Dead in Helmand Fighting

LASHKARGAH - At least eight Afghan National Army (ANA) soldiers were killed, four others wounded and two were taken hostage when Taliban fighters attacked an ANA check post on Wednesday night in Musa Qala district of southern Helmand province, an official said.

Mohammad Sharif, the district chief, told Pajhwok Afghan News that four ANA soldiers were also wounded and two were killed in the incident while fighting against the Taliban.

As per the ongoing operations, eight ANA soldiers were wounded and two others shot, said collateral that due to the Taliban attack, the government soldiers had to face a hard time.

A spokesman for the Ministry of Defense, told Pajhwok Afghan News National Security Council confirmed the attack on security post due to Taliban attack.

(More on P4)...(20)

Relents, Rebels in Civilian Bloodshed in Badakhsh Province

KABAUL - At least 17 suspected militants were killed, four others wounded and five others died of their gunshot wounds when Taliban fighters attacked ANA soldiers on Tuesday night in southern Badakhshan province.

A military official, said that investigations into the killing had been launched and police started raids to nab the killers.

As a result of the raid, conduct of the security forces, 17 suspected Taliban militants were killed and five of them died.

(More on P4)...(21)

17 Alleged Militants Dead in Badakhshan Violence

KABAUL - An alleged to North Westin zone’s Shura area, Khost, according to security forces Thursday, at least 17 suspected militants were killed, four others wounded and five dead.

This is the latest attack in which another 25 suspected Taliban militants were killed and three of their handouts were destroyed.

(More on P4)...(22)

Outlook

Work on Paktika TownshipScheme for Teachers Launched

KHOST CITY - construction work to develop a new school for teachers has been kicked-off in the eastern Paktika province, which was previously hit hard by the Taliban, the local teachers’ community to great extent.

Deputy Governor Ataullah Faizi told Pajhwok Afghan News foundation for constructing the project had been laid, which would be built on 25 acres of land. The ceremony, he said, was being developed close to the capital.