UN Child Casualties in Afghanistan Record High

KABUL - The first four months of 2017 witnessed the highest recorded number of children casualties due to the conflict-related incidents in Afghanistan, the United Nations said, with 285 deaths and 704 injured. "Between January 01 and April 30, 2017, UNAMA pro-luminately recorded 987 child casualties (285 deaths and 704 injured)," 21 percent increase in child deaths compared to the same period in 2016," said the UN Assistance Mission in Afghanistan (UNAMA).

KABUL - Salamatu Azami, a former Afghan military officer, expressed her support when 201,000 hectares of land were planted with the crop plant in 2015. "This is an important 3 years that government has not been shared with the sexual abuse and family violence against women. She said Indonesia’s experience in dealing with women.

US Congressional Delegation Visits Kabul

KABUL - A 13-person women’s Congressional delegation (CODEL) led by U.S. Representative Martha Roby (R-AL) visited Afghanistan last week. The CODEL conducted oversight of American operations in Afghanistan with a focus on the contribution, efforts, and concerns of U.S. women in the U.S. Armed Forces with an additional focus on gender issues and challenges facing Afghan women.

At the NATO Resolute Support camp in Kabul, CODEL participated in two panel discussions with Afghan women leaders from civil society and Afghanistan’s First Lady, Rula Ghani, at her office.

SPECIAL CHARGÉ D’AFFAIRES AMBASSADOR HUGO LORRAIN BECCEY

According to information obtained by the Afghan ministry said that the foreign military helicopters also had been shared with the anti-government forces. In its statement, a copy of which was sent to the President Ashraf Ghani and the Hezb-i-Islami Afghani-ment between the government and the Hezb-i-Islami Afghani-

KABUL - Joining the peace process does not mean surrender and those who want to reconcile should be welcomed, says a noted religious scholar. Dr. Faizul Chani Karak, a member of the Afghanistan Ulema Movement, said peace had to be political or economic but it was the duty of the faithful. He was addressing an event on Loving Humanity, Ulema Role in Development and Respect for Human Rights. Scholars from Indonesia also attended Monday’s gathering.

Kabul called corruption was the main... [Read More on P4]...

KABUL - Following the peace process does not mean surrender and those who want to reconcile should be welcomed, says a noted religious scholar. Dr. Faizul Chani Karak, a member of the Afghanistan Ulema Movement, said peace had to be political or economic but it was the duty of the faithful. He was addressing an event on Loving Humanity, Ulema Role in Development and Respect for Human Rights. Scholars from Indonesia also attended Monday’s gathering.

Karak called corruption was the main... [Read More on P4]...

Afghan Woman Seeks to become Youngest to Make Solo Round-the-World Flight

MONTREAL - An Afghan pilot hoping to become the youngest woman in history to complete a solo round-the-world flight was preparing Monday to start the sharbat... [Read More on P4]...

Afghan Woman Seeks to become Youngest to Make Solo Round-the-World Flight

MONTREAL - An Afghan pilot hoping to become the youngest woman in history to complete a solo round-the-world flight was preparing Monday to start the sharbat... [Read More on P4]...