KABUL - Tribal elders in Khost province have ordered parents to send their girls to school and agreed to end forced school dropouts. The tribal elders said the decision was made to prevent girls from being denied an education in Musa Khail district in Khost.

The decision was taken at a gathering at a school in the province where elders agreed to impose a 5,000 Afghani fine on families who stop their daughters from going to school. Besides councils and tribal elders have made one decision to allow girls to go to school as they al- ready have. Those who oppose this decision will be fined 5,000 Afghani, said Malik Zara, a tribal elder in Khost. "If we send our daughters and girls to school, we will not face..." (More on P.47)

KAFIR CITY - The Ministry of Education says the decision was made to ensure safety of schoolchildren, teachers and employees of the ministry in the province. Amidst rise in insecurity and conflicts in façade province, the Ministry of Education on Thursday an- nounced that all schools and educational institutions will be closed in the province tempo- rarily.

The ministry said in a state- ment that the decision was made to ensure safety of schoolchildren, schoolchildren and employees of the ministry in the province. The ministry has directed the provincial directorate of education to delay starting schools for a month and order them to end, the statement said. Local officials in Fana- confirmed early Thursday that clashes between government forces and Taliban insurgents have resumed in Farkh city after insurgent's attack se- condary conflict on Wednesday night.

"The officials said Taliban insur- gents are hiding in civilian homes. They confirmed from suicide bombers detonated explosive close to police headquarters and govern- ment buildings. Basakhs have meanwhile said Taliban insurgents started clashes with government forces on Wednesday night close to the police headquarters building. The residents said currently insurgentart is fighting with forces in other parts of the city."

WASHINGTON - The black- and-white aerial footage showed a line of purported Taliban insurgents going walking along a path in a lightly forested desert in Afghanistan’s western Far- rash province. Suddenly, the screen flashes to white as the body is then cut to a U.S. MQ-9 “Reaper” drone.

"Taliban fighters on the run following Afghanistan’s offen- sive in Farah province, Afghanistan. Video shows..." (More on P.45)

KABUL - The CEO’s office has also said they will be forced to take action if the provincial Palace continues to ignore the concerns of the public, then they will be forced to act regarding the controversial process. "If stubbornness and obsti- nacy continue regarding the illegal and non-distributive withdrawal of identity cards..." (More on P.50)

WASHINGTON - The black- and-white aerial footage showed a line of purported Taliban insurgents going walking along a path in a lightly forested desert in Afghanistan’s western Far- rash province. Suddenly, the screen flashes to white as the body is then cut to a U.S. MQ-9 “Reaper” drone.

"Taliban fighters on the run following Afghanistan’s offen- sive in Farah province, Afghanistan. Video shows..." (More on P.45)

KABUL - Ministry to Start Work on Solar Energy Project in Daikundi

The Ministry of Education and Water Resources announced the start of the project, which will provide power to three districts in Daikundi. "The solar project will..." (More on P.46)

FARAH CITY - The Ministry of Education has announced the decision to allow girls to go to school as they al- ready have. Those who oppose this decision will be fined 5,000 Afghani, said Malik Zara, a tribal elder in Khost. "If we send our daughters and girls to school, we will not face..." (More on P.47)

WASHINGTON - The U.S. military has provided air support with A-10 attack aircraft and public protests also con- tinue regarding the illegal and non-distributive withdrawal of identity cards..." (More on P.50)

KABUL - President Ashraf Ghani has in a video message has congratulated the Tal-iban insurgent group to refrain from violence during the 30-day Ramadan. Ghani said that the Tal-iban and other militant groups do not spread peace and stability for the worshippers during the month of Ramadan.

Meanwhile, the U.S. ambassador for Afghanistan John R. Bass says his country is working for the well- being, improvement, and end of vio- lence in war-torn Afghanistan.

"The terrorists who falsely claim to speak in the name of Islam have only caused more harm and suffering to ordinary Afghans. We hope and work each day to bring an end to..."

"The official said the campaign started in May and will last four days to reach Kandahar. Members of the peace campaign asked the people to join them in delivering their message of peace to anti-government soldiers."

KABUL - Helmand activists said they call on the people to join the movement to save their children and support peace in the war-affected area.

A new move, peace activists in Helmand started a journey in which they will walk to Kabul as their last destination to carry their message to the cen- tral government, the people and anti-government militiamen.

On Thursday evening, the eight members of the convoy arrived at Kandahar where they met with residents, tribal elders and activists. It took four days for them to reach Kandahar.

"The convoy will..." (More on P.45)

Washington - The UN Secretary General’s Special Representative for Afghanistan, Am- amachi told TOLOnews.

"The UN Secretary General’s Special Representative for Afghanistan, Am- amachi told TOLOnews.

"The UN Secretary General’s Special Representative for Afghanistan, Am- amachi told TOLOnews.

"The UN Secretary General’s Special Representative for Afghanistan, Am- amachi told TOLOnews.

"The UN Secretary General’s Special Representative for Afghanistan, Am- amachi told TOLOnews.

"The UN Secretary General’s Special Representative for Afghanistan, Am- amachi told TOLOnews.

"The UN Secretary General’s Special Representative for Afghanistan, Am- amachi told TOLOnews.

"The UN Secretary General’s Special Representative for Afghanistan, Am- amachi told TOLOnews.

"The UN Secretary General’s Special Representative for Afghanistan, Am- amachi told TOLOnews.

"The UN Secretary General’s Special Representative for Afghanistan, Am- amachi told TOLOnews.

"The UN Secretary General’s Special Representative for Afghanistan, Am- amachi told TOLOnews.

"The UN Secretary General’s Special Representative for Afghanistan, Am- amachi told TOLOnews.

"The UN Secretary General’s Special Representative for Afghanistan, Am- amachi told TOLOnews.

"The UN Secretary General’s Special Representative for Afghanistan, Am- amachi told TOLOnews.

"The UN Secretary General’s Special Representative for Afghanistan, Am- amachi told TOLOnews.

"The UN Secretary General’s Special Representative for Afghanistan, Am- amachi told TOLOnews.

"The UN Secretary General’s Special Representative for Afghanistan, Am- amachi told TOLOnews.

"The UN Secretary General’s Special Representative for Afghanistan, Am- amachi told TOLOnews.

"The UN Secretary General’s Special Representative for Afghanistan, Am- amachi..." (More on P.40)

KABUL - The Air Force's main Twitter account @usafiorafgan came after days of intense fighting in the Afghan city of Farah, which has served as a me- morial of the peri-firing U.S.-drouted Afghan forces even after 16 years of war in the West.

The U.S. military has provided air support with A-10 attack aircraft and public protests also con- tinue regarding the illegal and non-distributive withdrawal of identity cards..." (More on P.50)

WASHINGTON - The U.S. military has provided air support with A-10 attack aircraft and public protests also con- tinue regarding the illegal and non-distributive withdrawal of identity cards..." (More on P.50)

WASHINGTON - The U.S. military has provided air support with A-10 attack aircraft and public protests also con- tinue regarding the illegal and non-distributive withdrawal of identity cards..." (More on P.50)

WASHINGTON - The black- and-white aerial footage showed a line of purported Taliban insurgents going walking along a path in a lightly forested desert in Afghanistan’s western Far- rash province. Suddenly, the screen flashes to white as the body is then cut to a U.S. MQ-9 “Reaper” drone.

"Taliban fighters on the run following Afghanistan’s offen- sive in Farah province, Afghanistan. Video shows..." (More on P.45)