Element that Strengthens Democracy!

By Asmatyari

Asmatyari is the permanent writer of Daily Outlook Afghanistan. He can be reached at asmatyari@gmail.com

Turkey, As I Saw It!

By Muhammad Rassoul Shah

The free exercise of right to choose a legislative of one's choice is the core-value embodied in modern democratic systems and fair and soft system of elections that provesthe way of feasible indivi dual and collective representation. The late former President of Afghanistan, Hamed Karzai, to rig a poll or the whole of electoral system is indicative of bitter tension between democracy and authoritarianism. The former scenario is by far more costly and costly demanded the government should go with electoral reforms. We believed that if the electoral process could be made transparent, no corruption at human level instead institutions of high integrity must be held responsible for what has happened in the system. In the last several elections held for presidency, parliament and pro duced corruption: a part of the public has been systematically held responsible for what has happened in the system. In the last several elections held for presidency, parliament and pro

The current system is highly suitable for the conflict-resolution, but the problem of third party, which is capable of solving future problems. The reform commissions have failed in the past, it is not the time to drag the country out of multiple crises at the end of day instead of dragging back into storm.

Finding the war torn Afghanistan entangled amidst multifled prob lems, the transparent system is formed, a turning point in the history of

Asmatyari

Security Concerns and Challenges

This year the security concerns have grown very serious. There are reports of fighting in different parts of the country and Taliban in surgents have intensified their attacks in the capital Kabul as well.

In the last decade or more, Turkey earned a lot of popular buy into the idea of living together, with single aim of living a better life. It is a general view from different backgrounds, religious beliefs, languages, color and race

Turkish society is a very interesting and worth-admiring society. Here, secularism and religion go hand in hand. In a Turkish society, people from different backgrounds, religious beliefs, languages, color and race live together, with single aim of living a better life. It is a general view
from different backgrounds, religious beliefs, languages, color and race

Turkey is a vast land and its rural areas require a move ment and joint cooperation against the threats.

The most important factor at the moment that Pakistan must pursue is to create a tough border management system, containing the combusting terroritoy it is impossible to defeat it in both the context of afghanistan policy. It is the declaration of the National Inter terest, "We are taking a winning peace: Pakistan at its best.

Asmatyari

By Muhammad Rassoul Shah

F or you to last decade or more, Turkey earned a lot of popular interest, it was able to attract the gymnastic and strong arms of the state to what to drag the country out of multiple crises at the end of day instead of dragging back into storm.

Finding the war torn Afghanistan entangled amidst multifled prob lems, the transparent system is formed, a turning point in the history of

Asmatyari

Security Concerns and Challenges

This year the security concerns have grown very serious. There are reports of fighting in different parts of the country and Taliban in surgents have intensified their attacks in the capital Kabul as well.

In the last decade or more, Turkey earned a lot of popular
buy into the idea of living together, with single aim of living a better life. It is a general view
from different backgrounds, religious beliefs, languages, color and race

Turkish society is a very interesting and worth-admiring society. Here, secularism and religion go hand in hand. In a Turkish society, people from different backgrounds, religious beliefs, languages, color and race live together, with single aim of living a better life. It is a general view
from different backgrounds, religious beliefs, languages, color and race

Turkey is a vast land and its rural areas require a move ment and joint cooperation against the threats.

The most important factor at the moment that Pakistan must pursue is to create a tough border management system, containing the combusting terroritoy it is impossible to defeat it in both the context of afghanistan policy. It is the declaration of the National Inter terest, "We are taking a winning peace: Pakistan at its best.

Asmatyari

By Muhammad Rassoul Shah

F or you to last decade or more, Turkey earned a lot of popular

interest, it was able to attract the gymnastic and strong arms of the state to what