Iraqi Forces Call on Residents of IS- Held Fallujah to Prepare for Withdrawal

Backed by international forces, Iraqi government forces on Sunday told the residents remaining in the Islamic State (IS)-held city of Fallujah that they must prepare for withdrawal as the military offensive to recapture the city is entering its final stages.

"We are facing the final stage of the pullback of the troopers' groups on the border cities of the government's forces, and the army is preparing to move to the city from the positions of IS militants, which will be targeted by the air force. During the past few days, the security forces have been preparing to seize the city, and the city's leaders have been calling on the civilians to raise white flags on their houses, in order to make the residents of Fallujah city, some 30 kilometers south of Baghdad city, which has been under IS control for the past three years, to make a hard decision to leave the city and to make a decision to leave the city and make a hard decision to leave the city and make a decision to leave the city and make a decision to leave the city and make a decision to leave the city and make a decision to leave the city and make a decision to leave the city and make a decision to leave the city and make a decision to leave the city and make a decision to leave the city and make a decision to leave the city and make a decision to leave the city and make a decision to leave the city and make a decision to leave the city and make a decision to leave the city and make a decision to leave the city and make a decision to leave the city and make a decision to leave the city and

Ankara Ready to Slam West for Inaction on Refugee Crisis at Humanitarian Summit

Ankara - The second session of the U.N. Human Rights Council is expected to be a key event in the matter of the war in Syria, according to the Turkish human rights lawyer and International Human Rights Council member, Metin Corabatir.

"Syrian crisis has shown that there is no sufficient international solidarity. Western world should not be depend on neighbors of the country," he said.

Corabatir also noted that the safety and security of humanitarian aid workers are determining, saying that the recent aid workers are being kidnapped and killed. (Meryem on P4) (Contra)
