Taliban’s Spring Offensive Has Failed

Khalid says Taliban and their foreign supporters have not been able “to change anything in Afghanistan.”

KABUL - The latest report by the Pentagon’s ‘Lead Inspector General for Operation Freedom’s Sentinel’, reviews the quarter ending March 31 and covers the activities of terrorist groups in both Afghanistan and Pakistan. It focuses “particularly on Al Qaeda and ISIS-K,” noting that these two groups “remain a central focus of the Operation Freedom’s Sentinel (OFS) mission and has emerged as one of the key concerns in the ongoing peace negotiations.”

President Ashraf Ghani was also recently been hailed as a “hero” after preventing the Taliban from entering Kabul.

The acting defense minister said that “the enemies and their foreign supporters have not been able to change anything in Afghanistan. This all shows your heroism and sacrifices,” said Khalid.

For Afghanistan, still searching for peace after decades of war, the victory was especially sweet because it came against Pakistan. Many Afghans accuse their neighbors of supporting the Taliban and fuelling instability in Afghanistan.

Afghanistan Celebrates Warmup Win with Pride and Gunfire

KABUL - Afghanistan’s victory over Pakistan in a warm-up match for the Cricket World Cup on Friday was greeted with prolonged volleys of celebratory gunfire. The Lapis Lazuli Corridor was inaugurated during their one-month journey through the Lapis Lazuli Trade and Transit Route from Herat province in Afghanistan to Turkey via Turkmenistan, Azerbaijan, and Georgia. Their journey was started on April 22. They are carrying the message of peace to the Lapis Lazuli member countries.
