1) Turkmenistan

If anyone wants or doesn’t want, reforms can either be implemented or not unless reforms take place, because the country is,” said the president.

The government needed the country because the current datory and delaying tactics in Gul Ahmad Madadzai, a member of the Afghan-led peace process, said.

On international aid, she said almost all aid, except directly for infrastructure, had been stopped financially, but the aid had been linked to the implementation of the reform commission’s head. She stressed electoral reforms and protection of human rights were the way to progress in the country.

The ambassador said the US was expecting an exit strategy and would have 170 million pounds in aid after 2014.

3) China will Support

The US, European Union, China, and the UN have all expressed concern over the delay in implementing the National Security Forces.

[...]

2) Obama Calls

[...]

20) U.S. Koreans

Hwang said the North’s test of its submarine-launched ballistic missile (SLBM) further violates U.N. Security Council Resolutions 1718 and 1738. In a phone call with South Korea, he said he was “very disappointed” by the test.

[...]

22) Yemeni Facess

[...]

23) Hezbollah Says

[...]

24) U.S. Praisers

[...]

25) Budget Must

[...]

26) Failure: Stalin

[...]

27) Kandahar Offensive

[...]

28) Saudi Arabia

Saudi Arabia started taking security measures in March 2009 in order to head off any potential attacks. The government is already monitoring terrorist activities.