Seven Members of One Family Murdered in Kabul

KABUL – Seven members of one family including three women and two children were killed in their house in Karti Sakhi area in Kabul on Sunday evening.

The incident has shocked Kabul residents, who often see murder and armed robbery cases in the city over the past few weeks.

The attackers escaped when police arrived. We call on government to ensure public safety, otherwise the security officials should be dismissed,” said Humara (given name), a resident of Karti Sakhi.

Afghan War Veteran Assails Trump Over Draft Exemption

KABUL – The number of illegal Afghan migrants in Turkey – a gateway to Europe – has increased, said Interior Minister Süleyman Soylu.

Around 41,392 migrants arrived from the war-hit country in the first five months of the current year, Daily Sabah quoted the minister as saying.

In June, 20,956 were deported, Soylu said, calling the number of deportees unprecedented at the global level.

The new influx of undocumented migrants from Afghanistan represents a sudden surge in the spring of 2018, with about 16,000 intercepted in a matter of months. In 2017, the minister recalled, some 1,000 Afghan migrants were intercepted. The total number of migrants has greatly reached.
