Manpower, which means the Taliban have not changed their thinking or their leadership," said a leaked US military report. "They are still with the Taliban," he said.

"And that's because they are trying to do the same things as we, surprisingly, trying to improve their lives, which have improved. The US armed forces have not been unable to disrupt. But what we are going to do is to take a hold and destroy and present them with a new situation that they will be unable to disrupt."

"But they are still with the Taliban," he said.

"I am well aware of this and, as an Afghan, I am working on a new program to improve the situation as soon as possible," he said.

"And I am working on this from now on, and I am well aware of this."
