Civilian Casualties up in October: CPAG

The Civilian Protection Advocacy Group (CPAG) on Monday voiced concern over increasing civilian casualties in Afghanistan, denouncing last month’s deadly attacks.

KABUL - CPAG members condemned the terrorist attacks in Paktia, Ghir and Kabul as inhuman acts, in which dozens of civilians were killed and wounded. It called on the warring parties to stop such attacks.

A CPAG report documented 455 casualties in October. 200 people were killed, including 11 children and 8 women, and another 220 were injured, including 18 women. Of 106 fatalities from suicide attacks, most were killed in Kabul, Ghir and Pak.

KARACHI - Pakistan and Afghans are losing out on the huge potential for trade due to fraught diplomatic relations and poor connectivity, according to traders and experts, who urged radical measures to rectify the situation.

Trade between the two countries currently stands at $1.5 billion, compared with $2.5 billion in 2015.

Pakistan Afghan Joint Chamber of Commerce and Industries Chairman Zubair Motiwala told Anadolu Agency: “Fortunately, there is a huge trade potential between the two countries, according to Motiwala, is over $10 billion but because of multiple hurdles, which are very much addressable, bilateral trade -- documented and undocumented -- is not.”

Traders Urge Radical Steps to Reduce Pak-Afghan Tension

BARSHAQ - The Afghan Civil society organization said it is working on its own to organize a meeting in the Gulf later this month between the Taliban and influential regional leaders of the Afghan Society.

Khalilullah Safi, a founding member of the Afghan Society.

The meeting plan includes a high-profile delegation of the Taliban from their political office in Doha as well as politicians, civil society members, parliamentarians, security, rights activists, and people close to the Afghan government.

“A PNOC has no role in this meeting directly or indirectly. We are only inviting the United Nations as an observer,” said Safi.

The meeting plans include a high-profile delegation of the Taliban from their political office in Doha, in addition to politicians, civil society members, parliamentarians, security, rights activists, and people close to the Afghan government.

Women's Situation Improves but Challenges Remain

GAZIRE - The Women Affairs Department of southeastern Pak-

Ismail Khan Warns of Massive Fraud in Upcoming Elections

KABUL - A prominent former Jihadi leader, Ismail Khan, has warned of massive fraud in the upcoming elections, insisting that the power of Afghanistan has not more trust in the current government.

Speaking, during a gathering in Herat in province, Khan said the current government has been imposed on the Afghan people. Khan went on to claim that in such a situation the people of Afghanistan will not participate in the elections and the ballot boxes will be filled in favor of a particular..." (More on P8)

Trust Deficit Hurting Afghan Transit Trade: PAJCII Chief

KARACHI - Pakistan and Afghans are losing out on the huge potential for trade due to fraught diplomatic relations and poor connectivity, according to traders and experts, who urged radical measures to rectify the situation.

Trade between the two countries currently stands at $1.5 billion, compared with $2.5 billion in 2015.

Pakistan Afghan Joint Chamber of Commerce and Industries Chairman Zubair Motiwala told Anadolu Agency: “Fortunately, there is a huge trade potential between the two countries, according to Motiwala, is over $10 billion but because of multiple hurdles, which are very much addressable, bilateral trade -- documented and undocumented -- is not.”

Drug Addiction a Silent Tsunami: Azimi

SHIBERGHAN - Counter Narc-

45 Militants Including Talib

KABUL - A CPAG report documented 455 casualties in Oc-

KARACHI - Pakistan and Afghans are losing out on the huge potential for trade due to fraught diplomatic relations and poor connectivity, according to traders and experts, who urged radical measures to rectify the situation.

Trade between the two countries currently stands at $1.5 billion, compared with $2.5 billion in 2015.

Pakistan Afghan Joint Chamber of Commerce and Industries Chairman Zubair Motiwala told Anadolu Agency: “Fortunately, there is a huge trade potential between the two countries, according to Motiwala, is over $10 billion but because of multiple hurdles, which are very much addressable, bilateral trade -- documented and undocumented -- is not.”

Traders Urge Radical Steps to Reduce Pak-Afghan Tension

BARSHAQ - The Afghan Civil society organization said it is working on its own to organize a meeting in the Gulf later this month between the Taliban and influential regional leaders of the Afghan Society.

Khalilullah Safi, a founding member of the Afghan Society.

The meeting plan includes a high-profile delegation of the Taliban from their political office in Doha as well as politicians, civil society members, parliamentarians, security, rights activists, and people close to the Afghan government.

“A PNOC has no role in this meeting directly or indirectly. We are only inviting the United Nations as an observer,” said Safi.

The meeting plans include a high-profile delegation of the Taliban from their political office in Doha, in addition to politicians, civil society members, parliamentarians, security, rights activists, and people close to the Afghan government.

Women's Situation Improves but Challenges Remain

GAZIRE - The Women Affairs Department of southeastern Pak-

Ismail Khan Warns of Massive Fraud in Upcoming Elections

KABUL - A prominent former Jihadi leader, Ismail Khan, has warned of massive fraud in the upcoming elections, insisting that the power of Afghanistan has not more trust in the current government.

Speaking, during a gathering in Herat in province, Khan said the current government has been imposed on the Afghan people. Khan went on to claim that in such a situation the people of Afghanistan will not participate in the elections and the ballot boxes will be filled in favor of a particular..." (More on P8)

Trust Deficit Hurting Afghan Transit Trade: PAJCII Chief

KARACHI - Pakistan and Afghans are losing out on the huge potential for trade due to fraught diplomatic relations and poor connectivity, according to traders and experts, who urged radical measures to rectify the situation.

Trade between the two countries currently stands at $1.5 billion, compared with $2.5 billion in 2015.

Pakistan Afghan Joint Chamber of Commerce and Industries Chairman Zubair Motiwala told Anadolu Agency: “Fortunately, there is a huge trade potential between the two countries, according to Motiwala, is over $10 billion but because of multiple hurdles, which are very much addressable, bilateral trade -- documented and undocumented -- is not.”

Drug Addiction a Silent Tsunami: Azimi

SHIBERGHAN - Counter Narc-

45 Militants Including Talib

KABUL - A CPAG report documented 455 casualties in Oc-

KARACHI - Pakistan and Afghans are losing out on the huge potential for trade due to fraught diplomatic relations and poor connectivity, according to traders and experts, who urged radical measures to rectify the situation.

Trade between the two countries currently stands at $1.5 billion, compared with $2.5 billion in 2015.

Pakistan Afghan Joint Chamber of Commerce and Industries Chairman Zubair Motiwala told Anadolu Agency: “Fortunately, there is a huge trade potential between the two countries, according to Motiwala, is over $10 billion but because of multiple hurdles, which are very much addressable, bilateral trade -- documented and undocumented -- is not.”

Traders Urge Radical Steps to Reduce Pak-Afghan Tension

BARSHAQ - The Afghan Civil society organization said it is working on its own to organize a meeting in the Gulf later this month between the Taliban and influential regional leaders of the Afghan Society.

Khalilullah Safi, a founding member of the Afghan Society.

The meeting plan includes a high-profile delegation of the Taliban from their political office in Doha as well as politicians, civil society members, parliamentarians, security, rights activists, and people close to the Afghan government.

“A PNOC has no role in this meeting directly or indirectly. We are only inviting the United Nations as an observer,” said Safi.

The meeting plans include a high-profile delegation of the Taliban from their political office in Doha, in addition to politicians, civil society members, parliamentarians, security, rights activists, and people close to the Afghan government.

Women's Situation Improves but Challenges Remain

GAZIRE - The Women Affairs Department of southeastern Pak-

Ismail Khan Warns of Massive Fraud in Upcoming Elections

KABUL - A prominent former Jihadi leader, Ismail Khan, has warned of massive fraud in the upcoming elections, insisting that the power of Afghanistan has not more trust in the current government.

Speaking, during a gathering in Herat in province, Khan said the current government has been imposed on the Afghan people. Khan went on to claim that in such a situation the people of Afghanistan will not participate in the elections and the ballot boxes will be filled in favor of a particular..." (More on P8)

Trust Deficit Hurting Afghan Transit Trade: PAJCII Chief

KARACHI - Pakistan and Afghans are losing out on the huge potential for trade due to fraught diplomatic relations and poor connectivity, according to traders and experts, who urged radical measures to rectify the situation.

Trade between the two countries currently stands at $1.5 billion, compared with $2.5 billion in 2015.

Pakistan Afghan Joint Chamber of Commerce and Industries Chairman Zubair Motiwala told Anadolu Agency: “Fortunately, there is a huge trade potential between the two countries, according to Motiwala, is over $10 billion but because of multiple hurdles, which are very much addressable, bilateral trade -- documented and undocumented -- is not.”

Drug Addiction a Silent Tsunami: Azimi

SHIBERGHAN - Counter Narc-

45 Militants Including Talib

KABUL - A CPAG report documented 455 casualties in Oc-

KARACHI - Pakistan and Afghans are losing out on the huge potential for trade due to fraught diplomatic relations and poor connectivity, according to traders and experts, who urged radical measures to rectify the situation.

Trade between the two countries currently stands at $1.5 billion, compared with $2.5 billion in 2015.

Pakistan Afghan Joint Chamber of Commerce and Industries Chairman Zubair Motiwala told Anadolu Agency: “Fortunately, there is a huge trade potential between the two countries, according to Motiwala, is over $10 billion but because of multiple hurdles, which are very much addressable, bilateral trade -- documented and undocumented -- is not.”

Traders Urge Radical Steps to Reduce Pak-Afghan Tension

BARSHAQ - The Afghan Civil society organization said it is working on its own to organize a meeting in the Gulf later this month between the Taliban and influential regional leaders of the Afghan Society.

Khalilullah Safi, a founding member of the Afghan Society.

The meeting plan includes a high-profile delegation of the Taliban from their political office in Doha as well as politicians, civil society members, parliamentarians, security, rights activists, and people close to the Afghan government.

“A PNOC has no role in this meeting directly or indirectly. We are only inviting the United Nations as an observer,” said Safi.

The meeting plans include a high-profile delegation of the Taliban from their political office in Doha, in addition to politicians, civil society members, parliamentarians, security, rights activists, and people close to the Afghan government.

Women's Situation Improves but Challenges Remain

GAZIRE - The Women Affairs Department of southeastern Pak-

Ismail Khan Warns of Massive Fraud in Upcoming Elections

KABUL - A prominent former Jihadi leader, Ismail Khan, has warned of massive fraud in the upcoming elections, insisting that the power of Afghanistan has not more trust in the current government.

Speaking, during a gathering in Herat in province, Khan said the current government has been imposed on the Afghan people. Khan went on to claim that in such a situation the people of Afghanistan will not participate in the elections and the ballot boxes will be filled in favor of a particular..." (More on P8)