The militants were repelled from the provincial capital Lashkargah, the provincial governor said.

DUSHANBE - The United Nations Economic Commission for Europe (UNECE) Weekly # 442 (October 26) reports that Tajik and Afghan officials met in Dushanbe on October 22 and 23 to discuss their bilateral cooperation in the Panj River Basin.

The meeting concluded with an intensive round of collaborative efforts for the two countries, which saw the first exchange of hydrological data and joint environment and technology expeditions. Challenges discussed during the meeting included adaptation and mitigation strategies for climate change.

Tajik-Afghan Cooperation on the Panj Basin Widens with UNECE Support
