KABUL - The NATO-led International Security Assistance Force in Afghanistan has praised Afghan journalists for their brave work.

The Afghan Journalists for Peace Foundation said Saturday that it would mark the International Day to End Impunity for Crimes Against Journalists by Afghan journalists.

The day is also observed in Afghanistan every year amid growing violence against journalists.

The Second Vice President of Afghanistan's Counter-Terrorism Agency said that Afghan journalists face dangers. Speaking, he said:... "(More on P4)...(1)

NATO SCR Praises Afghan Journalists for their Brave Work

Farah’s Voters List, Biometric Devices Destroyed in Chopper

KABUL - The IEC has said preliminary results for provinces will be released in about 20 days, while those for Kabul will be announced on December 1.

Karim Parsa, the IEC’s chief, said at a press conference on Saturday that the results will be announced on November 25 for 23 provinces, and on December 1 for Kabul.

Hashimi said that the commission had received the provincial results and that the commission had no intention of accepting any results that had not been announced.

The AGO spokesman Jamshid Rasuli told TOLO-news that the punishments which have been considered for the perpetrators of the cases include from death penalty to imprisonment.

Parsa said that several biometric devices were destroyed.

Meanwhile, An IEC official in Kabul rejected claims that ballot boxes had been destroyed. The IEC chief said that the results for Kabul were not yet been released.

26 th November: The day is also observed in Afghanistan every year amid growing violence against journalists.

The Second Vice President of Afghanistan’s Counter-Terrorism Agency said that Afghan journalists face dangers.

Speaking, he said: "When we consider the lives of about 27 people, we also have a number of people who have been killed in the battles that are being fought.

In Pakistan, several people have been killed in the battles.

In Afghanistan, several people have been killed in the battles.

Meanwhile, An IEC official in Kabul rejected claims that ballot boxes had been destroyed.

The IEC chief said that the results for Kabul were not yet been released.