The Pakistani army chief General Qamar Javed Bajwa has said extremism and Talibanization is neither the agenda of Pakistan nor its narrative.

KABUL - General Bajwa reportedly made the remarks during a meeting with Afghan leaders in Kabul last month.

A source close to the development has told Dainik Bhaskar that "General Bajwa asked the Afghan leaders about what Pakistan could do. The Afghan leaders reiterated their longstanding claims that Talibanization is neither the agenda of Pakistan nor its narrative."

KABUL - Minister of Finance Hafeez Mustafa Heyat said on Monday that the government is planning to launch a new ring road, Gardez ring road, a project that has been the subject of controversy after reports the services would be suspended.

"Government of Afghanistan isn’t going to ban any social media platforms. WhatsApp and Telegram to continue operating in Afghanistan," Javid Faisal, deputy spokesman to government Chief Executive Abdullah Abdullah, wrote on Twitter. The row over instant messaging services began after a letter from the Ministry of Information and Communications to the government and expressed its concern about the impact of social media platforms on intellectual property rights.

The Afghan government has not yet made a final decision on the issue. However, the government has been considering various options to address the concerns raised by stakeholders.

KABUL - The Afghan government will not block the instant messaging services WhatsApp and Telegram, a spokesman said on Monday, following a controversy after reports the services would be suspended.

"Government of Afghanistan isn’t going to ban any social media platforms. WhatsApp and Telegram will continue operating in Afghanistan," Javid Faisal, deputy spokesman to government Chief Executive Abdullah Abdullah, tweeted.

The row over instant messaging services began after a letter from the Ministry of Information and Communications to the government and expressed its concern about the impact of social media platforms on intellectual property rights.

The Afghan government has not yet made a final decision on the issue. However, the government has been considering various options to address the concerns raised by stakeholders.

KABUL - Afghan President Ashraf Ghani has met with members of the Afghan diaspora in Pakistan to discuss the situation in Afghanistan.

Ghani, who is on a visit to Pakistan, said the meeting was held to discuss the current situation in Afghanistan and the role of the diaspora in assisting the Afghan government.

The meeting was attended by members of the Afghan diaspora, including leaders of various organizations and community members, who discussed the situation in Afghanistan and the role of the diaspora in assisting the Afghan government.

KABUL - Joint Bayat Foundation and Starkey Hearing Foundation Care Teams will Distribute more than 1,000 Hearing Aids to Afghans Affected by Hearing Loss.

KABUL - The Afghan government has announced plans to provide more than 1,000 hearing aids to Afghan children and adults affected by hearing loss.

The announcement comes in the wake of the ongoing debate over the role of social media platforms in the country, with some calling for a ban on platforms like WhatsApp and Telegram.

Byff and SHF Launch Fourth Annual Afghanistan’s ‘Gift of Hearing’ Mission

The Bayat Foundation and Starkey Hearing Foundation have launched the fourth annual Afghanistan’s ‘Gift of Hearing’ mission.

The mission aims to provide hearing aids to thousands of Afghans, including children who are affected by hearing loss.

In 2014, the very first Bayat Foundation-Starkey Hearing Foundation ‘Gift of Hearing’ mission provided hearing aids and hearing care to more than 1,000 children and adults. And this precious gift of hearing—the ability of people to hear the voices of their loved ones, and the worst sounds of the wider world—changed their lives for the better.

During 2015, the Bayat Foundation and Starkey Hearing Foundation expanded their second Hearing Care mission to serve Afghans living in Herat, Balkh, and Kabul provinces. During the 2015 Hearing Care mission, more than 2,000 people received hearing aids.

The Bayat Foundation and Starkey Hearing Foundation have launched the fourth annual Afghanistan’s ‘Gift of Hearing’ mission.

The mission aims to provide hearing aids to thousands of Afghans, including children who are affected by hearing loss.

In 2014, the very first Bayat Foundation-Starkey Hearing Foundation ‘Gift of Hearing’ mission provided hearing aids and hearing care to more than 1,000 children and adults. And this precious gift of hearing—the ability of people to hear the voices of their loved ones, and the worst sounds of the wider world—changed their lives for the better.

During 2015, the Bayat Foundation and Starkey Hearing Foundation expanded their second Hearing Care mission to serve Afghans living in Herat, Balkh, and Kabul provinces. During the 2015 Hearing Care mission, more than 2,000 people received hearing aids.

The Bayat Foundation and Starkey Hearing Foundation have launched the fourth annual Afghanistan’s ‘Gift of Hearing’ mission.

The mission aims to provide hearing aids to thousands of Afghans, including children who are affected by hearing loss.

In 2014, the very first Bayat Foundation-Starkey Hearing Foundation ‘Gift of Hearing’ mission provided hearing aids and hearing care to more than 1,000 children and adults. And this precious gift of hearing—the ability of people to hear the voices of their loved ones, and the worst sounds of the wider world—changed their lives for the better.

During 2015, the Bayat Foundation and Starkey Hearing Foundation expanded their second Hearing Care mission to serve Afghans living in Herat, Balkh, and Kabul provinces. During the 2015 Hearing Care mission, more than 2,000 people received hearing aids.

The Bayat Foundation and Starkey Hearing Foundation have launched the fourth annual Afghanistan’s ‘Gift of Hearing’ mission.

The mission aims to provide hearing aids to thousands of Afghans, including children who are affected by hearing loss.

In 2014, the very first Bayat Foundation-Starkey Hearing Foundation ‘Gift of Hearing’ mission provided hearing aids and hearing care to more than 1,000 children and adults. And this precious gift of hearing—the ability of people to hear the voices of their loved ones, and the worst sounds of the wider world—changed their lives for the better.

During 2015, the Bayat Foundation and Starkey Hearing Foundation expanded their second Hearing Care mission to serve Afghans living in Herat, Balkh, and Kabul provinces. During the 2015 Hearing Care mission, more than 2,000 people received hearing aids.

The Bayat Foundation and Starkey Hearing Foundation have launched the fourth annual Afghanistan’s ‘Gift of Hearing’ mission.

The mission aims to provide hearing aids to thousands of Afghans, including children who are affected by hearing loss.

In 2014, the very first Bayat Foundation-Starkey Hearing Foundation ‘Gift of Hearing’ mission provided hearing aids and hearing care to more than 1,000 children and adults. And this precious gift of hearing—the ability of people to hear the voices of their loved ones, and the worst sounds of the wider world—changed their lives for the better.

During 2015, the Bayat Foundation and Starkey Hearing Foundation expanded their second Hearing Care mission to serve Afghans living in Herat, Balkh, and Kabul provinces. During the 2015 Hearing Care mission, more than 2,000 people received hearing aids.

The Bayat Foundation and Starkey Hearing Foundation have launched the fourth annual Afghanistan’s ‘Gift of Hearing’ mission.

The mission aims to provide hearing aids to thousands of Afghans, including children who are affected by hearing loss.

In 2014, the very first Bayat Foundation-Starkey Hearing Foundation ‘Gift of Hearing’ mission provided hearing aids and hearing care to more than 1,000 children and adults. And this precious gift of hearing—the ability of people to hear the voices of their loved ones, and the worst sounds of the wider world—changed their lives for the better.

During 2015, the Bayat Foundation and Starkey Hearing Foundation expanded their second Hearing Care mission to serve Afghans living in Herat, Balkh, and Kabul provinces. During the 2015 Hearing Care mission, more than 2,000 people received hearing aids.

The Bayat Foundation and Starkey Hearing Foundation have launched the fourth annual Afghanistan’s ‘Gift of Hearing’ mission.

The mission aims to provide hearing aids to thousands of Afghans, including children who are affected by hearing loss.

In 2014, the very first Bayat Foundation-Starkey Hearing Foundation ‘Gift of Hearing’ mission provided hearing aids and hearing care to more than 1,000 children and adults. And this precious gift of hearing—the ability of people to hear the voices of their loved ones, and the worst sounds of the wider world—changed their lives for the better.

During 2015, the Bayat Foundation and Starkey Hearing Foundation expanded their second Hearing Care mission to serve Afghans living in Herat, Balkh, and Kabul provinces. During the 2015 Hearing Care mission, more than 2,000 people received hearing aids.