The man, Haji Qayoum, brought the issue before the provincial council of Mazari Sherif. He alleged that 15 Taliban were killed in the latest attack.

A man on Tuesday accused authorities of neglecting his complaints. He had already taken the matter through judiciary. He said it was a legal issue and if the man was telling the truth, he should move the court.

He said he was a resident of Deh Yak district, said two civilians were killed.

Taliban Have Killed Two Afghan Military Officials

Afghan officials confirmed that two Afghan military officials were killed on Wednesday in an attack by Taliban militants in Deh Yak district, Qara Mohammad Arif Noori, the governor’s spokesman, said.

“Taliban militants killed two Afghan military officials including three policemen were wounded during the clash,” he said.

According to Noori, five Taliban insurgents, including three policemen were wounded during the clash.

The transmission lines were not repaired within six hours or even 12 days in some cases. The cables were cut by local insurgents, and the government also failed to repair them.

He added the two provincial council members had purchased the land against money.

However, Balk provincial council head Dr. Mohammad Agha Haidy told Pajhwok the two PC members had purchased the land for their own use.

He said the claimant, Abdul Wahab, was mentally ill, who frequently raised such animal arguments.

He said it was a legal issue and if the man was telling the truth, he should move the court.
