President Mohammad Ashraf Ghani has arrived in the central Daikundi province to inaugurate some development projects, an official said on Friday.

During the day-long trip, the president would inaugurate the solar power project, the electricity supply project to Niilfi, the provincial capital and water reservoir sachem of Sobekh Dam.

The president would hold separate meetings with security officials, tribal elders, teachers and civil society activists.

Pakistan, Afghanistan Discuss Return of Afghan Refugees

KABUL - A Memorandum of Understanding for the Reconstruction of Dahla Dam in Kandahar Worth $400m

MoU Signed for the Reconstruction of Dahla Dam in Kandahar Worth $400m

KABUL - A Memorandum of Understanding was signed for the reconstruction of Dahla Dam in southern Kandahar province of Afghanistan.

The Office of the President, ARJ Palace, in a statement said the MoU was signed in the presence of President Mohammad Ashraf Ghani by acting finance minister Dr. Humayun Qayoumi, World Bank Country Director Shabir Chaudhuri, and Afghan Development Bank Country Director Samuel Tiwana.

The statement further added that the Afghan Development Bank signed a contract with ANZIEC and Afghan Tarin companies for the design and construction work of raising the altitude of Dahla Dam which would be completed by 31st August 2019.

The next meeting of the AFAPPP had been held in Kabul in January next year. The first meeting was held in Kabul on 22 July 2018 as part of the inauguration ceremony.

US War on Terror Kills Nearly 147,000 in Afghanistan

The study by Brown University, titled “The Afghanistan War and Long-term Violence” and a study by a US institute says.

The report said the war-related deaths, between 268,000 and 295,000, occurred in the war zones, local military and police forces, as well as civilians, who have died from war violence.

Though the war on terror is often over-dramatized, the increased body count signifies that, far from diminishing, this war remains intense,” the report said.

The report says fatalities in Afghanistan, as of October 2018, stood at about 147,000 people, including Afghan security forces, civilians and opposition fighters. The figure also included the deaths of 6,543 American soldiers and contractors, as well as more than 1,300 allied troops.

The report says that war-related violence had killed 850,000 Pakistanis in Pakistan, including 90,000 Americans contractors, almost 9,000 local security personnel and more than 22,000 civilians. The report also added that the war-related violence had killed 6,543 people, including 15,000 Afghans, over 1,000 civilians and 1,000 osprey forces.

The report further added that the war-related violence had killed 6,543 people, including 15,000 Afghans, over 1,000 civilians and 1,000 osprey forces.

Most Incidents of Target Killing Not Investigated

The Talibans and the government have started negotiations to end the war, but there has been no progress so far.

The gathering commemorated the killing of Waliyo Jaga economic commissioner’s members in a blast close to the sugar mill in northern Baghlan province back in 2008.

The Talibans were among the five people of Afghanistan and should be negotiated from the position of power. (More on P.6)