A forum in Kabul which was also attended by Massoud, said that Afghan authorities including Afghanistan’s Attorney General Farhad Hamidi and acting minister of interior or Police Gen. Abdul Raziq had agreed to increase the attention of authorities on the rights of the inmates and their protection. He said that the security institutions should have the necessary measures to ensure the protection of the inmates and that the justice institution is implemented in the area of the rights of the prisoners.

“AGO requires the security forces to ensure that the rights of the inmates are protected and that they have the right to report anything that they see is happening,” said Hamidi.

At the forum, Hamidi also pledged to work with all Afghan institutions in the ministry of interior in a way that maintaining justice in Afghanistan will also help reduce efforts for sustainable peace but called the ongoing war in Afghanistan as a curse.

“We are facing an imposed war and need to defend ourselves. Next year we will in an unprecedented way defend our territories as we are fully ready for it,” said Hamidi.

Burhanuddin also pledged to tackle the problem of prison overcrowding in the direct manner.
