TORKHAM - Residents who live in the eastern part of Nangarhar, along the Durand Line, on Sunday once again called for the Afghan government to establish schools in the area for children.

They said the lack of schools in their villages force them to send their children to school across the Durand Line in Pakistan.

The education department at the Ministry of Education (MoE) has confirmed that there is an issue and pledged to take steps towards finding a solution to the problem as soon as possible. (More on P5-10)

KABUL - As the security and peace are still beyond your control and you’re powerless to do anything about it, you may need to put all your energy into a group project, one you’re always wanted to do or even one you regretted not doing in the past.

You’re going to feel a bit disconnected with the way your life is going at the moment, and you may ask yourself certain questions about your goals. Does your personal life live up to your ideals? (More on P5-10)

Sagittarius (Nov.22-Dec.21)

You’re trying to do too much, Sagittarius. It looks like you’re overextending yourself and that can influence your mental state. Don’t get too involved in things, especially those that make you feel anxious or stressed. (More on P5-10)

Taurus (Apr.22-May 20)

You seem to be a specialist at relationships, and you’re very sensitive to the feelings of others. In fact, you may even overreact at times, especially if you’re in an odd question, but another one may be hiding somewhere else. So, try not to make your second opinion as often as possible (unless of course you have a good answer). Only you can answer that question.

Gemini (May 21-June 21)

You’re usually full of energy, Cancer, but today you may not feel so enthusiastic. There’s a lot on your mind, and you may have the time to do some thinking about your life and what you expect to get out of your relationships. You might also want to think about those goals you’ve been trying to achieve up to now. (More on P5-10)

Leo (July 23-Aug.22)

You may find it strange to have your life at the center of the spotlight, but you’re going to feel a bit disconnected with the way your life is going at the moment. (More on P5-10)

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sep.22)

You’re feeling a bit disconnected with the way your life is going at the moment. You may think that someone is asking certain questions about your goals. Does your personal life live up to your ideals? (More on P5-10)

Aquarius (Jan 20-Feb.18)

You have a very dynamic day ahead of you today, Pisces. You may feel the need to put all your energy into a group project, and you will want to roll up your sleeves and get to work. You’re usually a meditative person, but today you’re looking for concrete results and actions. Who knows? This hard work might even help you relax later today.

Scorpio (Oct.23-Nov.22)

You’re going to feel a bit disconnected with the way your life is going at the moment. You may think that someone is asking certain questions about your goals. Does your personal life live up to your ideals? (More on P5-10)

Sagittarius (Nov.22-Dec.21)

You’re trying to do too much, Sagittarius. It looks like you’re overextending yourself and that can influence your mental state. Don’t get too involved in things, especially those that make you feel anxious or stressed. (More on P5-10)

Pluto (Feb.19-Mar.20)

You may want to roll up your sleeves and get to work. You’re usually a meditative person, but today you’re looking for concrete results and actions. Who knows? This hard work might even help you relax later today.

Jenius (Jan 20-Feb.18)

You have a very dynamic day ahead of you today, Pisces. You may feel the need to put all your energy into a group project, and you will want to roll up your sleeves and get to work. You’re usually a meditative person, but today you’re looking for concrete results and actions. Who knows? This hard work might even help you relax later today.

Taurus (Apr.22-May 20)

You’re usually full of energy, Cancer, but today you may not feel so enthusiastic. There’s a lot on your mind, and you may have the time to do some thinking about your life and what you expect to get out of your relationships. You might also want to think about those goals you’ve been trying to achieve up to now. (More on P5-10)

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sep.22)

You’re feeling a bit disconnected with the way your life is going at the moment. You may think that someone is asking certain questions about your goals. Does your personal life live up to your ideals? (More on P5-10)