Pence, Abdullah Talk Terrorist Sanctuaries & Election Preparations

“Vice President Pence and Dr Abdullah reaffirmed the enduring partnership between the United States and Afghanistan,” the White House said in a statement.

WASHINGTON: Vice President Mike Pence and Chief Executive Officer Abdullah Abdullah discussed the current political situation in Afghanistan. After the meeting The White House said: “They focused on President Trump’s South Asia policy and its beneficial impact on the security situation in Afghanistan.” Pence commended the Afghan security forces for their bravery and sacrifices in battling the...(More on P4)...(1)

The National Islamic Movement of Afghanistan spokesman Bashir Ahmad Tayyaran on Saturday said first Vice President General Abdul Rashid Dostum is preparing to return to Afghanistan after spending about six months in Turkey. Dostum on Friday met with Turkish president Rajab Tayeb Erdogan, which according to Tayyaran, was his last meeting in Turkey before returning home. “An increase of Afghan students in Turkey, regulating Afghan refugees in Turkey and securing Turkey’s attention, a powerful actor, in Afghanistan’s issues were discussed. ...(More on P4)...(4)

Govts. Keep Global Climate Deal on Track Despite U.S. Pullout

BONN, Germany - Almost 200 nations kept a 2015 global agreement to tackle climate change on track on Saturday after marathon talks overshadowed by U.S. President Donald Trump’s decision to pull out. Fijian Prime Minister Frank Bainimarama, providing at the two-week talks in Bonn, said the outcome “undermines the importance of keeping the momentum and of holding the spirit and vision of our Paris Agreement.” Delegates agreed to launch a process in 2018 to start reviewing existing plans to limit greenhouse gas emissions as part of a long-term effort to...(More on P4)...(2)

Terrorist Sanctuaries & Election Preparations

WASHINGTON: Vice President Mike Pence and Chief Executive Officer Abdullah Abdullah discussed the current political situation in Afghanistan. After the meeting The White House said: “They focused on President Trump’s South Asia policy and its beneficial impact on the security situation in Afghanistan.” Pence commended the Afghan security forces for their bravery and sacrifices in battling the...(More on P4)...(1)

"Vice President Pence and Mr. Abdullah reaffirmed the enduring partnership between the United States and Afghanistan. The White House said in a statement.'