(1) [Official] The border, the border, the border. In one revealing document, the border was covered in red tape, and revealed that it took a significant amount of time to cross.

"They (Turkmenistan border guards) are known for their corruption," they were known as the red tape guards.

The Turkmenistan border guards were not known for their efficiency, and were considered to be slow.

The Afghan government took the matter seriously and began redacting transit services to Turkmenistan, leading to a reduction in trade deals.

An increase by Taliban in public violence has been reported, as they want to sabotage achievements made by the Unity Government.

Ghani's deputy spokesman Sayed Safet Karim welcomed Ghani's move to allow unity government to work more closely with the Taliban.

He added that there are also difficulties in transportation and government is working to resolve them but the TAPI gas pipeline is not expected to be completed for another six months which would be another challenge for the Afghan economy.

(2) [Turkmenistan] After Turkmenistan's gas arrive at Afghanistan to drug dealers in Europe, Afghanistan and Kazakhstan is at the crossing point to the prison near Afghanistan.
