ANSF Retaliates Against Pakistan’s Barrage of Missiles on Kunar

KABUL - The Afghan National Security Forces (ANSF) have retaliated against the bombardment of missiles fired by Pakistan military forces on Kunar province in the eastern regions of Afghanistan to the west. On Wednesday, the Afghanistan National Police chief on Wednesday claimed that the ANSF successfully destroyed several key Pakistani check points. According to local officials in January, as of the past week, Pakistani forces have fired over 1,000 missiles in Kunar, which has resulted in a number of civilian casualties. Reports indicate that at least five civilians were killed or wounded as a result of the shelling on six districts of Kunar. "We inflicted massive destruction on bases of Pakistani military forces, we usedartillies and destroyed their bases," said Pajhwok police chief Juma Gul Hamid. "We are very concerned about these attacks, government should stop them." (More on P4)
