The statement states President Ghani wishes them success on appointment to the Anti-Corruption Commission and congratulated the members of the Independent Commission for three years.

Speaking at the ceremony, President Ghani congratulated the members of the Anti-Corruption Commission and thanked them for their service. He also emphasized the importance of the commission in fighting corruption and ensuring transparency in government. The ceremony was attended by senior government officials and representatives from various civil society organizations.

KABUL - Afghanistan’s First Vice President Amrullah Saleh vowed on Sunday to try his best to handle the situation after Saturday’s rocket attack in Kabul city which claimed some 17 people. Saleh also said, on his Facebook page, after an early morning meeting with security officials that the death toll had risen to 10 from the attack and the total number of wounded was 51. “We will find out the networks that planned and carried out this attack were becoming cleaner each day and that findings would be released to the public in the near future. Whenever the investigation is finished, we will share the details with the people of Afghanistan,” he said. Saleh also stated that “a change in method is key to bring about a change in the situation,” and called on Afghans to cooperate with government to eliminate impunity. Despite the Taliban’s denial of having been part of Saturday’s rocket attack, many officials believe otherwise. Recently, interior ministry data showed that in the past six months the Taliban have carried out 53 suicide attacks and detonated 1,200 explosive devices that have left 2,120 civilians dead and 2,900 wounded.

KABUL - A member of a sister, Marshal Shapouri, was among the eight civilians killed in Kabul Rocket Attacks.

Following the attack, which is also known as the Gul-e-Surkh Roundabout in Karran area, the rockets landed in Wazir Akbar Khan and Shahr-e-Naw areas in downtown Kabul, Shahr Qula, the Traffic Roundabout, the Gazi-Surakh Roundabout in PD4, (More on PD4...(3)

More added: Meanwhile, the UN Assistance Mission in Afghanistan (UNAMA) also extended its condolences to the bereaved. (ATN)

Pakistan wants to host Afghanistan for Limited Over Series Next Year

KABUL - Pakistan wants to host Afghanistan for limited over series next year, Pakistan Cricket Board’s CEO Wasim Khan has said. It comes after Pakistan Prime Minister Imran Khan visited Kabul and extended an invitation to Afghan national team last Thursday. “We will do everything we can to find a window in the calendar for the series against Afghanistan,” Wasim Khan told the Associated Press.

Afghans and Pakistan were provisionally scheduled to play a T20 match in Kabul in 2017, followed by a match in Pakistan. The proposed fixtures, however, were cancelled following a truck bomb in Kabul, which the Afghan intelligence agency said was carried out by Haqqani network with assistance from Pakistan. (ST NEWS)

Pakistan Wants to Host Afghanistan for Limited Over Series Next Year

KABUL - Pakistan wants to host Afghanistan for Limited Over Series Next Year, Pakistan Cricket Board’s CEO Wasim Khan has said. It comes after Pakistan Prime Minister Imran Khan visited Kabul and extended an invitation to Afghan national team last Thursday. “We will do everything we can to find a window in the calendar for the series against Afghanistan,” Wasim Khan told the Associated Press.

Afghans and Pakistan were provisionally scheduled to play a T20 match in Kabul in 2017, followed by a match in Pakistan. The proposed fixtures, however, were cancelled following a truck bomb in Kabul, which the Afghan intelligence agency said was carried out by Haqqani network with assistance from Pakistan. (ST NEWS)
Roadside Bomb Hurts 2 in Kandahar

KANDAHAR - Officials in Kandahar said a roadside bomb has injured two civilians, including a woman.

The incident took place on Sunday morning in Band district of the province, officials added.

Kandahar is one of the most insecure provinces in the country and Taliban attackers are present in different parts of the province.

Meanwhile, the Ministry of Defense (MoD) said that security forces have cleaned the Kandahar district of Badakhshan province of Taliban insurgents in a series of operations.

A statement from the MoD said that security forces cleaned the Taliban’s main district of Badakhshan province in a country-wide operation. According to the statement, the Taliban suffered heavy casualties in the operation and most of their remaining forces have reached the district.

The security forces captured the district from the Taliban a few days earlier. (Khaama Press)

KABUL - A special unit of the Afghan National Police (ANP) has discovered and defused at least two roadside mines in the north of Kabul province, ANA said.

The ANA said that ANP forces in Parwan province, including ANP personnel in the northern part of Kabul city, have been combing the area to defuse and destroy mines and IEDs planted by terrorists.

The ANP forces have also defused two road side bombs planted by terrorists in a remote tribal area in the provincial capital.

“The ANP bomb disposal unit discovered and defused two roadside bombs planted by terrorists in Rishkhor area, 7th district of Kabul City,” said the MoD in a statement.

Mahmadi District of Badakhshan Cleared of Taliban: MoD

KABUL - Businessmen in the provincial capital of northern Jawzjan province on Monday said that business turnover has increased as a major hurdle to promotion of their businesses and asked the government for the situation to be resolved.

Over 130 women have been prevented from joining the Women Affairs Department for work in Jawzjan.

Zakirkhizada, one of the businesses, told a Jawzjan News that women could work better if they were provided with the same environment.

She runs a restaurant in Sheberghan, a town in Jawzjan, in a news from Jawzjan, Afghan National Public (ANP) “detected a landmine in 1st district of Kabul City,” according to the statement. (Khaama Press)

Insecurity Main Hurdle to Work: Businesswomen

KABUL - Businessmen in the provincial capital of northern Jawzjan province on Monday said that business turnover has increased as a major hurdle to promotion of their businesses and asked the government for the situation to be resolved.

Over 130 women have been prevented from joining the Women Affairs Department for work in Jawzjan.

Zakirkhizada, one of the businesses, told a Jawzjan News that women could work better if they were provided with the same environment.

She runs a restaurant in Sheberghan, a town in Jawzjan, in a news from Jawzjan, Afghan National Public (ANP) “detected a landmine in 1st district of Kabul City,” according to the statement. (Khaama Press)

ANP Defuses 2 Mines in Rishkhor of Kabul City

ANP in a statement said that security forces have cleaned the Kandahar district of Badakhshan province of Taliban insurgents in a series of operations.

A statement from the MoD said that security forces cleaned the Taliban’s main district of Badakhshan province in a country-wide operation. According to the statement, the Taliban suffered heavy casualties in the operation and most of their remaining forces have reached the district.

The security forces captured the district from the Taliban a few days earlier. (Khaama Press)

KANDAHAR - Official in Kandahar said a roadside bomb has injured two civilians, including a woman.

The incident took place on Sunday morning in Band district of the province, officials added.

Kandahar is one of the most insecure provinces in the country and Taliban attackers are present in different parts of the province.

Meanwhile, the Ministry of Defense (MoD) said that security forces have cleaned the Kandahar district of Badakhshan province of Taliban insurgents in a series of operations.

A statement from the MoD said that security forces cleaned the Taliban’s main district of Badakhshan province in a country-wide operation. According to the statement, the Taliban suffered heavy casualties in the operation and most of their remaining forces have reached the district.

The security forces captured the district from the Taliban a few days earlier. (Khaama Press)

KABUL - A special unit of the Afghan National Police (ANP) has discovered and defused at least two roadside mines in the north of Kabul province, ANA said.

The ANA said that ANP forces in Parwan province, including ANP personnel in the northern part of Kabul city, have been combing the area to defuse and destroy mines and IEDs planted by terrorists.

The ANP forces have also defused two road side bombs planted by terrorists in a remote tribal area in the provincial capital.

“The ANP bomb disposal unit discovered and defused two roadside bombs planted by terrorists in Rishkhor area, 7th district of Kabul City,” said the MoD in a statement.

Mahmadi District of Badakhshan Cleared of Taliban: MoD

KABUL - Businessmen in the provincial capital of northern Jawzjan province on Monday said that business turnover has increased as a major hurdle to promotion of their businesses and asked the government for the situation to be resolved.

Over 130 women have been prevented from joining the Women Affairs Department for work in Jawzjan.

Zakirkhizada, one of the businesses, told a Jawzjan News that women could work better if they were provided with the same environment.

She runs a restaurant in Sheberghan, a town in Jawzjan, in a news from Jawzjan, Afghan National Public (ANP) “detected a landmine in 1st district of Kabul City,” according to the statement. (Khaama Press)

Insecurity Main Hurdle to Work: Businesswomen

KABUL - Businessmen in the provincial capital of northern Jawzjan province on Monday said that business turnover has increased as a major hurdle to promotion of their businesses and asked the government for the situation to be resolved.

Over 130 women have been prevented from joining the Women Affairs Department for work in Jawzjan.

Zakirkhizada, one of the businesses, told a Jawzjan News that women could work better if they were provided with the same environment.

She runs a restaurant in Sheberghan, a town in Jawzjan, in a news from Jawzjan, Afghan National Public (ANP) “detected a landmine in 1st district of Kabul City,” according to the statement. (Khaama Press) permanent ceasefire and respect the fundamental rights of the killing all human beings in the Quran. Therefore, the Taliban's ideology.

The Taliban's acts of violence and bloodshed on multiple occasions and clerics. Meanwhile, Afghan clerics condemned the Taliban's acts of violence and bloodshed on multiple occasions and called on them to declare a permanent ceasefire. To one'...
Badakhshan. He promised to share their chairman, also said that the government corruption in the country's governmental commission aimed at curbing Afghan people. Wherever there is female bodies, as the Taliban are strictly deadly grenade attacks and shooting on a policemen; one was poised and the other security official.

pretext of selling her body” on the orders reported to have been on death row, after Haqqani network. Both women were confession to being members of the shocking and deplorable that civilians enemies exploit these gaps and disrupt security and intelligence agencies. The people's problems,” said Abdul Wakil, a Kabul residents criticized the government preparing to go to Canada in near future. was expected to celebrate his engagement.

electricity, lack of access to long-term Industry, said, “Insecurity, lack of challenges in obtaining “universal access to education, higher education and others. in handicrafts, but now they had invested investors in the country.”

expected by the middle of the week. Provisional results from the first round are than %50 of the vote. In 2015, mass streets protests against the government during 2017, the first protest, “but neither can we allow people meals for themselves, but cut funding for the government down to 30,733 with 505 deaths. (Reuters)

now 201,000 cases, each day, and 33,000 combined cases to 30,733 with 505 deaths. (Reuters)

Provisional results from the first round are than %50 of the vote. In 2015, mass streets protests against the government during 2017, the first protest, “but neither can we allow people meals for themselves, but cut funding for the government down to 30,733 with 505 deaths. (Reuters)

now 201,000 cases, each day, and 33,000 combined cases to 30,733 with 505 deaths. (Reuters)
In Lebanon, army courts target Salafi-terrorist protesters

Al-Qaida names new North America leader, reports kidnap death

Solar Palestinian rocket fires draw leaders united against virus

How COVID envors fear third wave, calls Europe response ‘incomplete’

Advocates for Palestinian prisoners in Gaza say was negotiated and approved with the public’s money, said skateboarder and plumber and activist. The amount of damage caused to the economy is significant, he added. The health ministry said Thursday that the soldiers were acting in self-defense to prevent the deaths of at least 35 people while dancing and singing during the protest. The crowd of mainly young Nigerians were protesting the country’s national anthem and the national flag, which they said was being flown in the region. The incident came as protests against increased fuel prices and petrol shortages have spread across the country.

Syria: Network of votes in the presidential election, which refused to let a vote, was defeated by violence.

The lack of a consensus on the Trump campaign has spoiled the process that normally follows a loss, according to the election results. The election results show that President Donald Trump was defeated by Joe Biden, who leads by more than 290 electoral votes. The Trump campaign has refused to accept the results and has filed lawsuits in several states. Pense officials have said that the election results are final and that there is no evidence of fraud.

Tanzania’s 2020 summit opens as leaders urge unity response to virus

Burkina Faso holds election under looming threat of violence

Saudi Arabia says it seeks a way to end dispute with Qatar

French to start ease lockdown rules in coming weeks, government spokesmen say

Protesters torch Guatemala’s Congress building amid unrest

Jabari Jaber didn’t know it at the time, but his arrest on Saturday for entering the presidential palace in Beirut was a crucial moment in Lebanon’s political crisis. The 33-year-old man had been arrested by the Lebanese security forces several times before, but this time he was taken away.

The Trump administration has decided to withdraw the United States from the Iran nuclear deal and to impose new sanctions on Iran. The US has also increased its military presence in the region, leading to fears of an increase in tensions and a possible escalation of the conflict.

President Donald Trump has rejected the results of the US presidential election, saying the vote was ‘stolen’ and that there was widespread fraud. He has refused to accept the results, and has filed lawsuits in several states. The election results show that Joe Biden, the Democratic nominee, has won the presidency.

The lack of a consensus on the Trump campaign has spoiled the process that normally follows a loss, according to the election results. The election results show that President Donald Trump was defeated by Joe Biden, who leads by more than 290 electoral votes. The Trump campaign has refused to accept the results and has filed lawsuits in several states. Pense officials have said that the election results are final and that there is no evidence of fraud.

Syria: Network of votes in the presidential election, which refused to let a vote, was defeated by violence.

The lack of a consensus on the Trump campaign has spoiled the process that normally follows a loss, according to the election results. The election results show that President Donald Trump was defeated by Joe Biden, who leads by more than 290 electoral votes. The Trump campaign has refused to accept the results and has filed lawsuits in several states. Pense officials have said that the election results are final and that there is no evidence of fraud.

Syria: Network of votes in the presidential election, which refused to let a vote, was defeated by violence.

The lack of a consensus on the Trump campaign has spoiled the process that normally follows a loss, according to the election results. The election results show that President Donald Trump was defeated by Joe Biden, who leads by more than 290 electoral votes. The Trump campaign has refused to accept the results and has filed lawsuits in several states. Pense officials have said that the election results are final and that there is no evidence of fraud.

Syria: Network of votes in the presidential election, which refused to let a vote, was defeated by violence.

The lack of a consensus on the Trump campaign has spoiled the process that normally follows a loss, according to the election results. The election results show that President Donald Trump was defeated by Joe Biden, who leads by more than 290 electoral votes. The Trump campaign has refused to accept the results and has filed lawsuits in several states. Pense officials have said that the election results are final and that there is no evidence of fraud.

Syria: Network of votes in the presidential election, which refused to let a vote, was defeated by violence.

The lack of a consensus on the Trump campaign has spoiled the process that normally follows a loss, according to the election results. The election results show that President Donald Trump was defeated by Joe Biden, who leads by more than 290 electoral votes. The Trump campaign has refused to accept the results and has filed lawsuits in several states. Pense officials have said that the election results are final and that there is no evidence of fraud.

Syria: Network of votes in the presidential election, which refused to let a vote, was defeated by violence.

The lack of a consensus on the Trump campaign has spoiled the process that normally follows a loss, according to the election results. The election results show that President Donald Trump was defeated by Joe Biden, who leads by more than 290 electoral votes. The Trump campaign has refused to accept the results and has filed lawsuits in several states. Pense officials have said that the election results are final and that there is no evidence of fraud.

Syria: Network of votes in the presidential election, which refused to let a vote, was defeated by violence.

The lack of a consensus on the Trump campaign has spoiled the process that normally follows a loss, according to the election results. The election results show that President Donald Trump was defeated by Joe Biden, who leads by more than 290 electoral votes. The Trump campaign has refused to accept the results and has filed lawsuits in several states. Pense officials have said that the election results are final and that there is no evidence of fraud.

Syria: Network of votes in the presidential election, which refused to let a vote, was defeated by violence.

The lack of a consensus on the Trump campaign has spoiled the process that normally follows a loss, according to the election results. The election results show that President Donald Trump was defeated by Joe Biden, who leads by more than 290 electoral votes. The Trump campaign has refused to accept the results and has filed lawsuits in several states. Pense officials have said that the election results are final and that there is no evidence of fraud.

Syria: Network of votes in the presidential election, which refused to let a vote, was defeated by violence.

The lack of a consensus on the Trump campaign has spoiled the process that normally follows a loss, according to the election results. The election results show that President Donald Trump was defeated by Joe Biden, who leads by more than 290 electoral votes. The Trump campaign has refused to accept the results and has filed lawsuits in several states. Pense officials have said that the election results are final and that there is no evidence of fraud.

Syria: Network of votes in the presidential election, which refused to let a vote, was defeated by violence.

The lack of a consensus on the Trump campaign has spoiled the process that normally follows a loss, according to the election results. The election results show that President Donald Trump was defeated by Joe Biden, who leads by more than 290 electoral votes. The Trump campaign has refused to accept the results and has filed lawsuits in several states. Pense officials have said that the election results are final and that there is no evidence of fraud.

Syria: Network of votes in the presidential election, which refused to let a vote, was defeated by violence.

The lack of a consensus on the Trump campaign has spoiled the process that normally follows a loss, according to the election results. The election results show that President Donald Trump was defeated by Joe Biden, who leads by more than 290 electoral votes. The Trump campaign has refused to accept the results and has filed lawsuits in several states. Pense officials have said that the election results are final and that there is no evidence of fraud.

Syria: Network of votes in the presidential election, which refused to let a vote, was defeated by violence.

The lack of a consensus on the Trump campaign has spoiled the process that normally follows a loss, according to the election results. The election results show that President Donald Trump was defeated by Joe Biden, who leads by more than 290 electoral votes. The Trump campaign has refused to accept the results and has filed lawsuits in several states. Pense officials have said that the election results are final and that there is no evidence of fraud.
Pompeo Meets Afghan Govt, Taliban Negotiators

KABUL - A survey by the Afghan Civil Society Forum shows that 96 percent of Afghan population believe that the Taliban’s fight against the government is illegitimate. The survey is based on interviews with 2,750 men and women in 31 provinces of the country over the past three months. According to the poll, 86 percent of the respondents called the Taliban as being responsible for the conflict in the country.

Survey: 96 Percent of Afghans Say Taliban’s Fight Against Government Illegitimate

KABUL - US Secretary of State Mike Pompeo has arrived in Kabul ahead of his meeting with the Afghan government. Pompeo said in an interview with the Afghan media that the US is working with the Taliban to try to bring peace to Afghanistan.

Finance Ministry Opposes Dismissal of Its Officials by Palace

KABUL - The Ministry of Finance has opposed the dismissal of 59 employees by the President after the palace, calling it an act in contravention of the law. The ministry in a letter signed by Finance Minister Abdul Hadi Arghandwal has asked the dismissed officials to continue their duties until hiring new candidates for the posts.

No Financial, Life Guarantee For Invoices: Ministers

KABUL - Finance Minister Haji Mirwais Hajizada, on Saturday asked the government to take action and resolve their problems while the new commerce and industry minister expressed his concern over lack of financial and life guarantees for business people in Afghanistan.

Kabul Rocket Attack Rekindles Fight Against Government Illegitimate

Kabul Rocket Attack Rekindles Fight Against Government Illegitimate

KABUL - The withdrawal of US forces from Afghanistan should be dependent on the progress in the peace talks with the Taliban, said Afghan President and Head of High Council for National Reconciliation, Abdullah Abdullah. He said in an interview with the Afghan media that the US should be satisfied with the conditions improving.

Kabul Rocket Attack Rekindles Fight Against Government Illegitimate

KABUL - A number of individuals in Kabul and other parts of the country have taken responsibility for a Kabul rocket attack that rekindles the Afghan government’s fight against the Taliban.

Kabul Rocket Attack Rekindles Fight Against Government Illegitimate

KABUL - A survey by the Afghan Civil Society Forum shows that 96 percent of Afghan population believe that the Taliban’s fight against the government is illegitimate. The survey is based on interviews with 2,750 men and women in 31 provinces of the country over the past three months. According to the poll, 86 percent of the respondents called the Taliban as being responsible for the conflict in the country.

Survey: 96 Percent of Afghans Say Taliban’s Fight Against Government Illegitimate

KABUL - A survey by the Afghan Civil Society Forum shows that 96 percent of Afghan population believe that the Taliban’s fight against the government is illegitimate. The survey is based on interviews with 2,750 men and women in 31 provinces of the country over the past three months. According to the poll, 86 percent of the respondents called the Taliban as being responsible for the conflict in the country.

Survey: 96 Percent of Afghans Say Taliban’s Fight Against Government Illegitimate

KABUL - A survey by the Afghan Civil Society Forum shows that 96 percent of Afghan population believe that the Taliban’s fight against the government is illegitimate. The survey is based on interviews with 2,750 men and women in 31 provinces of the country over the past three months. According to the poll, 86 percent of the respondents called the Taliban as being responsible for the conflict in the country.

Survey: 96 Percent of Afghans Say Taliban’s Fight Against Government Illegitimate