Saudi Arabia Kicks Off Islamic Counter-Terrorism-Terror Summit

RIYADH – Saudi Arabia has gathered officials from 40 Muslim countries for its third summit in the first meeting of an Islamic anti-terror campaign. The meeting was due to start on Sunday, a move Prince Mohammed bin Nayef had said would send a “clear signal” to terrorists.

“Terrorists, in our view, terrorism has been functioning in all of our countries, with no coordination among them, he said in his opening speech.

“This ends today, with the collaboration of 40 countries. I am sure that the 40 countries were sending a ‘clear signal’ that they would work together with the financial, military, intelligence, and political efforts of every country.”

Israel accuses Hamas of rocket fire

JERUSALEM – Israel has accused Hamas of abandoning the de-escalation deal in the Gaza Strip, saying it has fired rockets across the border and is refusing to return captured Israeli soldiers.

The Israeli military said it has been monitoring the situation in the area and is taking all necessary measures to ensure the safety of its citizens.

The Hamas movement has denied the allegations and said it is ready to work with Israel to find a diplomatic solution to the conflict.

The United States, European Union, and United Nations have all condemned the rocket attacks and called for an immediate end to the violence.

Erdogan, Macron Discuss Syria Situation, Political Settlement

ANKARA – President Recep Tayyip Erdogan and his French counterpart Emmanuel Macron have discussed the Syrian situation and the EU’s new policy in the wake of recent developments. The leaders agreed that Syria’s participation is crucial in the political process.

On Friday, Erdogan had a “fruitful” conversation with Macron on Trump’s new policy in the war on terror.

In a statement, the two leaders stressed that Syria’s territorial integrity must be respected, and that a political solution should be protected from other foreign organizations. They also mentioned the need for a political solution in the future.

On Monday, the leaders met in Paris to discuss the situation in Syria and the EU’s new policy. The two leaders stressed that Syria’s territorial integrity must be respected, and that a political solution should be protected from other foreign organizations.

U.S. sanctions imposed on Iran after the failure of the nuclear agreement have led to a decrease in oil exports. The U.S. sanctions have led to a decrease in oil prices.

The leaders of the United Nations will work to prevent the escalation of the conflict in Syria. They believe that the EU’s new policy is crucial in the political process.

The two leaders also expressed their commitment to the implementation of the Geneva agreement and the Astana process.

Turkey and Qatar will hold a joint summit in March, and the leaders will discuss the situation in Syria and the EU’s new policy.

Qatar seeks to expand trade ties with Iran: Qatar Ministry of Commerce

TEHRAN – Bilateral ties between Iran and Qatar have significantly increased during the last few years. The two countries seek to increase trade volume and political relations.

U.S. sanctions have led to a decrease in oil prices. The U.S. sanctions have led to a decrease in oil prices.

The leaders of the United Nations will work to prevent the escalation of the conflict in Syria. They believe that the EU’s new policy is crucial in the political process.

Turkey and Qatar will hold a joint summit in March, and the leaders will discuss the situation in Syria and the EU’s new policy.

Turkey and Qatar will hold a joint summit in March, and the leaders will discuss the situation in Syria and the EU’s new policy.

Dubai: Plans to create world’s largest drone delivery hub

Dubai announced plans to create the world’s largest drone delivery hub on Friday, with the aim of using drones to deliver goods and services.

The project will be the first of its kind in the region and is expected to create thousands of jobs.

Dubai’s government has been investing heavily in technology and innovation, and the drone delivery hub is a key part of its strategy to become a global leader in these sectors.

The project will be built on a 3,000-acre site near the city of Al Jurf, and will include a central hub, several smaller hubs, and a network of delivery routes.

The project is expected to create more than 10,000 jobs and generate up to $1 billion in annual economic output.

Dubai’s government has been investing heavily in technology and innovation, and the drone delivery hub is a key part of its strategy to become a global leader in these sectors.