Afghan Government Rejects Proposals to Privatize War

Afghan officials have reacted angrily to speculation that foreign military contractors could take over training and advising the Afghan armed forces, following a renewed push by the founder of private military contractor Blackwater.

EU Ramps Up Aid to Assist Drought Victims

KABUL - The European Commission has allocated an additional €20 million (about $22 million) in emergency aid to Afghanistan as the humanitarian situation has worsened since the beginning of 2018, due in part to a severe drought affecting large parts of the country.

This brings total EU humanitarian aid for Afghanistan to €42 million in 2018. “The humanitarian situation in Afghanistan is deteriorating,” said EU Commissioner for Humanitarian Aid and Crisis Management, Christos Stylianou. “The EU is increasing its support to those most affected by the drought.”

Afghanistan’s Foreign Minister

Baku - Afghanistan’s Foreign Minister Mohammad Javid Javid, visiting his Azerbaijan counterpart Elmar Mammadyarov, opened immediately after the deadline of bid submission at the same place of bid submission, in the local time.

Two hundred and Sixty-One Thousand only (USD) or an equivalent amount in a freely convertible currency

The address referred to above is:

Address: Administrative Office of the President, National Procurement Authority (NPA), Governor Building, 1st Floor, Pashtunistan Watt, Kabul, Afghanistan
Attention: Aziz Ahmad Rodwal, Procurement Specialist
Email: aziz.rodwal@npo.gov.af
Telephone: +93-020-2147587.