1) Sharp increase in suicide attacks to kill and maim Afghan men, women and children; destroy livelihoods, and create terror among survivors.

The report identifies the victims of suicide attacks including civilians, students and military personnel. The attacks were also targeted with devices such as IEDs, rockets, and ground obstacles.

2) April 8, 2018

The spokesman of the Ministry of Interior's Special Representative for Afghan Peace, Eng. Amanullah Ghalib, said campuses in many parts of Afghanistan have been the target of attacks by the Taliban.

"The Taliban has caused Afghans unbearable effects of suicide and other IED attacks on the civilian population," the spokesman said. "The Taliban's terrorist attacks have caused Afghan men, women and children to flee from their homes and take refuge in their communities."

3) The two sides will direct their operations to launch joint development and capacity building projects in Afghanistan (ATN).

The two sides will work on joint development and capacity building projects in Afghanistan. They will also coordinate to prevent any attacks on the civilians and the infrastructure.

4) Insecurity

The spokesman of the Ministry of Interior said that the security situation in some parts of Afghanistan is still critical.

"In some parts of Afghanistan, the security situation is still critical," the spokesman said. "The security forces are working on improving the security situation in these areas."