Kabul Youth Perform Street Show to Support Peace Deal

KABUL - A number of youths in Kabul, Herat and southern parts of southern Helmand province, local officials said on Friday. Thursday, Taliban, including Commander Abdul Wali, were killed in an overnight airstrike by Afghan forces in the Buzaiapa of Lashkar Gah, the govenor's office said.

A separate raid in the Khalid village in the same area, officials said, a dozen insurgents dead and five more wounded. A statement from the government's house said. A separate airstrike in the

Group area of the same district destroyed a vehicle and a heavy machinegun of the enemy — as a postponement that Al-Lashkar Gah, during the raid, the . (More on P6, 13)

LASHKARGAH - More than two dozen militants have been killed in a series of overnight attacks in different parts of southern Helmand province, local officials said on Friday. Thursday, Taliban, including Commander Abdul Wali, were killed in an overnight airstrike by Afghan forces in the Buzaiapa of Lashkar Gah, the govenor's office said.

A separate raid in the Khalid village in the same area, officials said, a dozen insurgents dead and five more wounded. A statement from the government's house said. A separate airstrike in the

Group area of the same district destroyed a vehicle and a heavy machinegun of the enemy — as a postponement that Al-Lashkar Gah, during the raid, the . (More on P6, 13)

LASHKARGAH - More than two dozen militants have been killed in a series of overnight attacks in different parts of southern Helmand province, local officials said on Friday. Thursday, Taliban, including Commander Abdul Wali, were killed in an overnight airstrike by Afghan forces in the Buzaiapa of Lashkar Gah, the govenor's office said.

A separate raid in the Khalid village in the same area, officials said, a dozen insurgents dead and five more wounded. A statement from the government's house said. A separate airstrike in the

Group area of the same district destroyed a vehicle and a heavy machinegun of the enemy — as a postponement that Al-Lashkar Gah, during the raid, the . (More on P6, 13)

LASHKARGAH - More than two dozen militants have been killed in a series of overnight attacks in different parts of southern Helmand province, local officials said on Friday. Thursday, Taliban, including Commander Abdul Wali, were killed in an overnight airstrike by Afghan forces in the Buzaiapa of Lashkar Gah, the govenor's office said.

A separate raid in the Khalid village in the same area, officials said, a dozen insurgents dead and five more wounded. A statement from the government's house said. A separate airstrike in the

Group area of the same district destroyed a vehicle and a heavy machinegun of the enemy — as a postponement that Al-Lashkar Gah, during the raid, the . (More on P6, 13)

LASHKARGAH - More than two dozen militants have been killed in a series of overnight attacks in different parts of southern Helmand province, local officials said on Friday. Thursday, Taliban, including Commander Abdul Wali, were killed in an overnight airstrike by Afghan forces in the Buzaiapa of Lashkar Gah, the govenor's office said.

A separate raid in the Khalid village in the same area, officials said, a dozen insurgents dead and five more wounded. A statement from the government's house said. A separate airstrike in the

Group area of the same district destroyed a vehicle and a heavy machinegun of the enemy — as a postponement that Al-Lashkar Gah, during the raid, the . (More on P6, 13)

KABUL - A number of youths in Kabul, Herat and southern parts of southern Helmand province, local officials said on Friday. Thursday, Taliban, including Commander Abdul Wali, were killed in an overnight airstrike by Afghan forces in the Buzaiapa of Lashkar Gah, the govenor's office said.

A separate raid in the Khalid village in the same area, officials said, a dozen insurgents dead and five more wounded. A statement from the government's house said. A separate airstrike in the

Group area of the same district destroyed a vehicle and a heavy machinegun of the enemy — as a postponement that Al-Lashkar Gah, during the raid, the . (More on P6, 13)