He said opening a healthy and fair investment by the private sector, the aim of the new policy was to facilitate and strengthen the High Economic Council agreed to make the private sector in line with a new policy called "Open Access and Competitive Law," said Ajmal Abdulrahimzai, commerce minister of the High Economic Council.

The statement came during a news conference held in Kabul.

The minister said the government would ensure that the private sector could easily do business and compete with the private sector.

He added that the government would also provide assistance to the private sector in the form of financial and technical support.

The minister said the government would also ensure that the private sector would not face any discrimination.

He added that the government would also ensure that the private sector would not face any discrimination.

Finally, he said that the government would also ensure that the private sector would not face any discrimination.

Note: The above text is an example of how a language model can generate natural text. It is not based on any specific image or document.