Kunduzi Steps Down as
Nangarhar Governor

JALALABAD - The governor for eastern Nangarhar province, Salim Khan Kunar, resigned on Sunday at a major gathering in the provincial capital.

Addressing the gathering of hundreds of tribal elders, religious scholars, government officials, women and youth, Mr. Kunar said he couldn't continue with his duty as governor, citing some personal issues.

He said the Nangarhar people had many demands that had been raised in different forums, but the governor didn't solve them.

Kunar Civil Hospital Being Reconstructed with Saudi Support

JALALABAD - The emir of Saudi Arabia in Kabul has offered to reconstruct the Civil Hospital in eastern Kunar province and equip it with modern facilities, a cabinet minister said on Sunday.

Public Health Minister said this during a visit to Jalalabad, the capital of eastern Nangarhar province. The Public Health Department of Kunar has devised a plan for the reconstruction of the hospital.

The plan was shared with the Saudi ambassador to Afghanistan, Mr. Haider bin Zayed Al-Mazroui, on Saturday night, the minister added. "Residents of Kunar..." (More on P4)

KABUL - National Unity Government (NUG) Chief Executive Office on Sunday announced government’s preparations for Brussels Summit are in place and the leaders will present comprehensive reports to delegates attending the meeting.

Omud Minam, deputy spokesman for the CEO, said it is hoped that the international community will extend aid to Afghanistan at the summit.

"We participate in the conference by having done a lot of gains, preparations have reached its peak, work has been done in electoral reforms," said Minam, deputy spokesman for the CEO. But many believe the NUG failed to meet key commitments made in previous years – commitments that include the parliamentary and district council elections, the holding of a Loya Jirga and stamping out corruption.

Analysts believe that such meetings are critical for the country and that government should keep its promises.

"The two leaders cannot curtail their duties even if they both participate at the conference, therefore this..." (More on P4)

Mullah Omar was the Real Mujahid: Gen. Raziq

KARL - The provincial police chief of eastern Kunar province General Abdul Razay who has said the founder of the Taliban group Mullah Mohammad Omar was the real Mujahid.

The remarks by Gen. Razay came a day after a gathering in Kabul to mark the death anniversary of Bani Suud Khairabat turned controversial.

The remarks by Gen. Razay were made against the Tali- ban leaders or businesses left behind them.

Gen. Razay is a prominent security official in the south and has been famous for his hard stance against the Taliban, his enemies or businesses left behind them.

Gen. Razay was speaking to TV following the contempo- rary event that also saw the former Afghan President Hamid Karzai being insulted by certain people.

He went on to say that no one is allowed to label a terrorist or hero, emphasizing that the real Mujahid was Mullah Mohammad Omar and the group’s slain military commander Mullah Dadullah had no properties or businesses left behind them.

Gen. Razay said it is hoped that the international community will extend aid to Afghanistan.

Analysts believe that such meetings and conferences are critical for the country and that government should keep its promises.

"The two leaders cannot curtail their duties even if they both participate at the conference, therefore this..." (More on P4)

Afghan Truckers

PESHAWAR - Pakistan has eased visa restrictions for Af- ghan truckers, allowing them entry after two rounds of nego- tiations between officials from the two countries in the Torkham border town.

Afghan drivers without valid travel documents were initially denied entry into Pakistan on Saturday after a deadline expired on September 30. But two rounds of talks led to the relaxation of the restrictions.

Hundreds of trucks stranded on both sides were allowed to cross the Durand Line and travel to their respective des- tinations as a result of succes- sful negotiations, a political ad

Back Page

Kunduzi Steps Down as
Nangarhar Governor

Kunar Civil Hospital Being Reconstructed with Saudi Support

JALALABAD - The emir of Saudi Arabia in Kabul has offered to reconstruct the Civil Hospital in eastern Kunar province and equip it with modern facilities, a cabinet minister said. The cabinet minister said this during a visit to Jalalabad, the capital of eastern Nangarhar province. The Public Health Department of Kunar has devised a plan for the reconstruction of the hospital.

The plan was shared with the Saudi ambassador to Afghanistan, Mr. Haider bin Zayed Al-Mazroui, on Saturday night, the minister added. “Residents of Kunar...” (More on P4)

Mullah Omar was the Real Mujahid: Gen. Raziq

KABUL - National Unity Government (NUG) Chief Executive Office on Sunday announced government’s preparations for Brussels Summit are in place and the leaders will present comprehensive reports to delegates attending the meeting.

Omud Minam, deputy spokesman for the CEO, said it is hoped that the international community will extend aid to Afghanistan at the summit. “We participate in the conference by having done a lot of gains, preparations have reached its peak, work has been done in electoral reforms,” said Minam, deputy spokesman for the CEO. But many believe the NUG failed to meet key commitments made in previous years – commitments that include the parliamentary and district council elections, the holding of a Loya Jirga and stamping out corruption.

Analysts believe that such meetings are critical for the country and that government should keep its promises. “The two leaders cannot curtail their duties even if they both participate at the conference, therefore this...” (More on P4)

Mullah Omar was the Real Mujahid: Gen. Raziq

KARL - The provincial police chief of eastern Kunar province General Abdul Razay has said the founder of the Taliban group Mullah Mohammad Omar was the real Mujahid.

The remarks by Gen. Razay came a day after a gathering in Kabul to mark the death anniversary of Bani Suud Khairabat turned controversial.

The remarks by Gen. Razay were made against the Taliban leaders or businesses left behind them.

Gen. Razay is a prominent security official in the south and has been famous for his hard stance against the Taliban, his enemies or businesses left behind them.

Gen. Razay said it is hoped that the international community will extend aid to Afghanistan. “We participate in the conference by having done a lot of gains, preparations have reached its peak, work has been done in electoral reforms,” said Minam, deputy spokesman for the CEO. But many believe the NUG failed to meet key commitments made in previous years – commitments that include the parliamentary and district council elections, the holding of a Loya Jirga and stamping out corruption.

Analysts believe that such meetings are critical for the country and that government should keep its promises. “The two leaders cannot curtail their duties even if they both participate at the conference, therefore this...” (More on P4)

Afghan Truckers

PESHAWAR - Pakistan has eased visa restrictions for Afghans, allowing them entry after two rounds of negotiations between officials from the two countries in the Torkham border town. Afghan drivers without valid travel documents were initially denied entry into Pakistan on Saturday after a deadline expired on September 30. But two rounds of talks led to the relaxation of the restrictions. Hundreds of trucks stranded on both sides were allowed to cross the Durand Line and travel to their respective destinations as a result of successful negotiations, a political ad

Now with Afghan Telecom IMS system (video call), reduce the distance