Pakistan Third Highest Number of Refugees: Amnesty

UNITED NATIONS - Pakistan has the third highest number of refugees in the world, the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees said Tuesday. The report said that 8.4 million refugees worldwide have been forced to flee their homes in recent years, leaving Syria as the world's largest refugee crisis, followed by Afghanistan and Iran. Pakistan is the third highest host country with 1.9 million refugees, the report said. It noted that the number of refugees in Pakistan has increased by 1.8 million since 2010, making it the third largest host country in the world.
