The Shocking Episods of Kunduz

By Hajiullah Zia

This Taliban's evil practices have created huge unhappiness and fear among the Afghans. They have destroyed houses, plants, animals, and even people - and Afghan citizens are tired of living with the Taliban. They have carried out illegal innovations for the past six years and during this time, the Taliban have been forced to live in the desert areas of the country.

The Taliban have attempted to leave power, but have been forced to return. However, the Taliban have not only been forced to return, but they have also been forced to return to their illegal innovations.

The Taliban have, in fact, become a very dangerous group for Afghanistan and its citizens.

The Taliban are a very dangerous group for Afghanistan and its citizens. They have carried out illegal innovations for the past six years and during this time, the Taliban have been forced to live in the desert areas of the country. However, the Taliban have not only been forced to return, but they have also been forced to return to their illegal innovations.

The Taliban have carried out illegal innovations for the past six years and during this time, the Taliban have been forced to live in the desert areas of the country. However, the Taliban have not only been forced to return, but they have also been forced to return to their illegal innovations.

The Taliban have carried out illegal innovations for the past six years and during this time, the Taliban have been forced to live in the desert areas of the country. However, the Taliban have not only been forced to return, but they have also been forced to return to their illegal innovations.

The Taliban have carried out illegal innovations for the past six years and during this time, the Taliban have been forced to live in the desert areas of the country. However, the Taliban have not only been forced to return, but they have also been forced to return to their illegal innovations.