The ongoing security situation also threatens US, and its allies and it is not late when a day will come when the US will be forced to return to their homes, almost all because of the US.

It is a very serious happening. In Greece the leaving Syriza, party which rejects the austerity enforced across the euro zone by itsunelected troika, not only won the power for the second time but it also showed how people have lost hope from those who are still trying to deceive them on the name of capitalism. Syriza may have stepped back from its one-time demand for unilateral debt cancellation, its program to boost living standards in the wake of 1980’sstyle depression may be mocked, and mainstream votors across Europe who back a center-left direction. But Europe’s governing elites will have none of it.
