The government’s decision to allow tax on mobile users comes after a surprising decision that has seen a remarkable growth in the telecom sector. The tax on mobile users will be applied in stages, with a gradual increase to ensure a smooth transition. The government hopes this measure will help to increase government revenue and provide funds for various projects. The government is also planning to use these funds to support Afghan development projects and improve the living conditions of the Afghan people.

10) Taliban Threats...

In a statement released on 2nd September, the Taliban’s spokesman Zabihullah Mujahid claimed that the Afghan government is not taking the Taliban’s threats seriously. The statement warned that the Taliban will continue to attack government and security forces throughout the country. The Taliban also accused the Afghan government of failing to honor their commitments to the Taliban, including the release of prisoners and the implementation of the ceasefire agreement.

11) Taliban...

The Taliban has claimed that its fighters have regained control of several districts in the country, including in the eastern province of Nangarhar. The Taliban has also accused the Afghan government of failing to fulfill its obligations under the peace agreement. The Taliban has also threatened to escalate its attacks if the Afghan government does not honor its commitments.

12) Afghan Refugees...

During a press conference held in Kabul, the UN refugee agency (UNHCR) said that the number of Afghan refugees in Pakistan has declined by 70% since the beginning of the year. The UNHCR has praised Pakistan for its efforts to reduce the number of Afghan refugees in the country. The UNHCR has also urged Pakistan to continue its efforts to reduce the number of Afghan refugees in the country and to work towards a sustainable solution.

13) Taliban...

The Taliban has announced a new offensive against the Afghan government, with the group’s leader, Mullah Mohammad Omar, declaring that the Afghan government is not serious about peace talks. The Taliban has also warned that it will not accept any peace deal that does not include the withdrawal of foreign forces from Afghanistan.

14) Taliban...

During a recent ceremony, Mullah Omar declared that the Taliban will continue to fight until the fall of the Afghan government. The Taliban leader also said that the group will not accept any peace deal that does not include the withdrawal of foreign forces from Afghanistan.

15) Taliban...

The Taliban has announced that it will not participate in any peace talks with the Afghan government. The Taliban leader, Mullah Mohammad Omar, said that the Afghan government is not serious about peace talks and that the Taliban will continue to fight until the fall of the Afghan government.

16) Taliban...

In a statement released on 2nd September, the Taliban’s spokesman Zabihullah Mujahid claimed that the Afghan government is not taking the Taliban’s threats seriously. The statement warned that the Taliban will continue to attack government and security forces throughout the country. The Taliban also accused the Afghan government of failing to honor their commitments to the Taliban, including the release of prisoners and the implementation of the ceasefire agreement.

17) Taliban...

The Taliban has claimed that its fighters have regained control of several districts in the country, including in the eastern province of Nangarhar. The Taliban has also accused the Afghan government of failing to fulfill its obligations under the peace agreement. The Taliban has also threatened to escalate its attacks if the Afghan government does not honor its commitments.

18) Afghan Refugees...

During a press conference held in Kabul, the UN refugee agency (UNHCR) said that the number of Afghan refugees in Pakistan has declined by 70% since the beginning of the year. The UNHCR has praised Pakistan for its efforts to reduce the number of Afghan refugees in the country. The UNHCR has also urged Pakistan to continue its efforts to reduce the number of Afghan refugees in the country and to work towards a sustainable solution.

19) Taliban...

The Taliban has announced a new offensive against the Afghan government, with the group’s leader, Mullah Mohammad Omar, declaring that the Afghan government is not serious about peace talks. The Taliban has also warned that it will not accept any peace deal that does not include the withdrawal of foreign forces from Afghanistan.

20) Taliban...

During a recent ceremony, Mullah Omar declared that the Taliban will continue to fight until the fall of the Afghan government. The Taliban leader also said that the group will not accept any peace deal that does not include the withdrawal of foreign forces from Afghanistan.

21) Taliban...

In a statement released on 2nd September, the Taliban’s spokesman Zabihullah Mujahid claimed that the Afghan government is not taking the Taliban’s threats seriously. The statement warned that the Taliban will continue to attack government and security forces throughout the country. The Taliban also accused the Afghan government of failing to honor their commitments to the Taliban, including the release of prisoners and the implementation of the ceasefire agreement.

22) Afghanistan...