Ghani to Visit India Ahead of Pakistan Trip

KABUL - President Mohammad Ashraf Ghani is expected to visit India in two weeks before his trip to Pakistan, a reliable source said on Tuesday.

Earlier, Pakistani chief of staff Major General Javed Bajwa invited President Ghani to visit Islamabad. Afghan ambassador to Islamabad Hazrat Omar Ziafakhil said the president accepted the invitation.

However, he said, the details and time of the visit would be ascertained and determined after both countries held joint consultations.

On the other hand, India’s National Security Advisor Ajit Doval met with President Ghani and CEO Abdullah Abdullah on Monday in Kabul.

Doval reportedly extended an invitation on behalf of Prime Minister Narendra Modi to Ghani to visit India and the invitation was accepted.

The contribution would assist approximately 38,000 vulnerable people in Pakistan, a reliable source said.

The strategy focuses on promoting peace, stability and its 28 member states came as the EU Council adopted a new strategy for Afghanistan.

The reiteration of the commitment by the EU to Afghan forces is a clear demonstration of the EU’s support for Afghan security forces.
