Nangarhar Blast Sparks Wide International Condemnation

The UN issued the following statement on Friday:

“The Secretary-General strongly condemns the 18 October attack inside a mosque in Haska Mina district, Nangan-
har province, eastern Afghanistan…

The blasts happened yesterday around
1:00 pm in the Jana District of the Han-
ka Mina district during Friday prayers.

The explosions at the mosque in Haska
Mina district of Nangarhar province,
which resulted in at least 62 dead and 60 wounded, has provoked strongly-worded
responses from Afghan leaders and
demanded accountability.

Those responsible for this attack must be gar garh province, eastern Afghanistan…

The UN issued the following statement on Friday:

“The Secretary-General strongly condemns the 18 October attack inside a
mosque in Haska Mina district, Nangan-
har province, eastern Afghanistan…

The blasts happened yesterday around
1:00 pm in the Jana District of the Han-
ka Mina district during Friday prayers.

The explosions at the mosque in Haska
Mina district of Nangarhar province,
which resulted in at least 62 dead and
60 wounded, has provoked strongly-worded
responses from Afghan leaders and
demanded accountability.

Those responsible for this attack must be

The blasts happened yesterday around
1:00 pm in the Jana District of the Han-
ka Mina district during Friday prayers.

The explosions at the mosque in Haska
Mina district of Nangarhar province,
which resulted in at least 62 dead and
60 wounded, has provoked strongly-worded
responses from Afghan leaders and
demanded accountability.

Those responsible for this attack must be

The blasts happened yesterday around
1:00 pm in the Jana District of the Han-
ka Mina district during Friday prayers.

The explosions at the mosque in Haska
Mina district of Nangarhar province,
which resulted in at least 62 dead and
60 wounded, has provoked strongly-worded
responses from Afghan leaders and
demanded accountability.

Those responsible for this attack must be

The blasts happened yesterday around
1:00 pm in the Jana District of the Han-
ka Mina district during Friday prayers.

The explosions at the mosque in Haska
Mina district of Nangarhar province,
which resulted in at least 62 dead and
60 wounded, has provoked strongly-worded
responses from Afghan leaders and
demanded accountability.

Those responsible for this attack must be

The blasts happened yesterday around
1:00 pm in the Jana District of the Han-
ka Mina district during Friday prayers.

The explosions at the mosque in Haska
Mina district of Nangarhar province,
which resulted in at least 62 dead and
60 wounded, has provoked strongly-worded
responses from Afghan leaders and
demanded accountability.

Those responsible for this attack must be