Afghan senators on Sunday called for “prompt execution” of Anas Haqqani and other imprisoned militants, as violence has been sharpened in the country since last week.

KABUL - In order to improve the current security situation, the government should take practical steps, the senators said. Adding that the prisoners of the militant groups should be “executed” in revenge for innocent lives that died in flames of recent deadly attacks.

“Government should have similar actions against militants at the entrance gate to the Police HQ,” Hadi Muslimyar.

The attack caused severe damage to the police training center.
