1. Darwish, Milk is Black If They Say So

Darwish, 50, has been working as a milk seller for the last 20 years in Kabul.

Talking to reporters in Darwish, 50, has been working as a milk seller for the last 20 years in Kabul. He said, “The president will accept anything they say.”

He went on to ask, “What does Dr. Abdullah wants to prove by asking me that question?”

Darwish said the president was surrounded by flunkies, Minister Sayed Sadeq and Salam Rahimi -- accused everything they said.

“President will accept milk prices‘ suggestion about raisins and guava. I hear noise in society and don’t have evil intentions. All I want is an end to the clashes and fires. I don’t want to get any phone call informing me of someone’s death.”

A so-called commander from the government leaders, did not deserve his post. “They said you are Gen. Dostum as a weak leader in the north and isolate him with... (More on P4)...(5)
