As many as 95 insurgents have been killed in security operations in different parts of the country over the past 24 hours, the government claimed on Friday.

95 Insurgents Killed in Countrywide Operations: MoD

KABUL - The Ministry of Defence (MoD) said the militants were killed during offensives in Nangar- har, Ghazni, Pakhtika, Laghman, Uruzgan, Zabul, Balkh, Jawzjan, Faryab, Kunduz, Baghlan and Herat provinces. A statement from the ministry said five key insurgent leaders and 95 militants were killed during offensives in nine provinces, implying that the fight against terrorism continues.

90 Legal Cases of Women Decided in Kapisa This Year

MAHMODI RAJAE - The Women's Affairs Department of central Kapisa province has been able to resolve more legal cases involving women compared to the previous year. Kapisa women's affairs chief Ghazala Niaz told Pajhwok Afghan News on Thursday they cooperated with the justice and judicial organs in resolving 90 cases of women this year.

She said the cases were about domestic violence, denial of inheritance, women's financial support and other similar cases.

She said with the help of the provincial Labor and Social Affairs Department, a number of educated women were absorbed in government departments this year.

Female civil society activist, Mariam Murtaza, a Provincial "..."..."..."

Work on Crucial Kohat Bridge Begins

KANDAHAR CITY - Work on vital bridge in southeastern Khost province kicked off on Thursday, the bridge will help connect three districts with the provincial capital.

Governor Hikmat Khan Habi said after laying the foundation stone of the bridge the project would be constructed at the cost of 1.62 million Afghans which will also be supported by donors for development budget.

The bridge when constructed will be 20 meters long, eight meters wide with 150 meters retaining walls on both sides, he said.

"The bridge will help resolve the transport problems of residents of three districts specially during floods and rainy seasons," the governor said.

Jenifer Zaan, a Provincial "..."..."..."

Fresh Fruit Export Falls as Pakistan Rises Tariffs

KABUL - Officials from the Fresh Fruits Export Union said the export of fresh fruit to Pakistan has "decreased by almost 80 percent" after the Pakistani government raised tariffs on Afghan goods.

Head of the union, Abid Khan told Pajhwok Afghan News on Thursday they cooperated with the provincial capital.

MoD -..."..."..."

Airport Commander Detained for Currency Smuggling

Zia Durrani told Pajhwok Afghan News that should be considered. The students can start after school activities, provide with job opportunity," said Nasrullah Niazi, a university student. "I urge the high-

Saeed Kakar, said they ...(More on P4)...(18)

Saeed Kakar, said they ...(More on P4)...(19)

"There is war every night. We are worried about our children. The conflict has affected peoples' lives," said Abdul Razzaq, a resident of the government forces and Taliban militants in the center of Helmand province in the south of Afghanistan, said they were 300 armed forces captured by Taliban forces. "There are war every night. We are worried about our children. The conflict has affected peoples' lives," said Abdul Razzaq, a resident of Lashkargah. "Last night, there were heavy clashes and bombings. People cannot sleep during nights and we are in trouble," Qudratullah, another resident said. The residents called on security forces to main-

"..."..."..."

Residents Worried as Clashes Continue Outside Lashkargah City

KABUL - Residents of Lashkargah city, the center of Helmand province in the south of Afghanistan, said they were worried about their safety as clashes between government forces and Taliban militants near the outskirts of the city in the past two days. The operations in the town and the outskirts of Lashkargah City were launched on Wednesday and Thursday.

"There is war everywhere. We are worried about our children. The conflict has affected peoples' lives," said Abdul Razzaq, a resident of Lashkargah.

“Last night, there were heavy clashes and bombings. People cannot sleep during nights and we are in trouble,” Qudratullah, another resident said.

The residents called on security forces to main-

"..."..."..."

"..."..."..."

"..."..."..."

University Students Hold Design Expo in Kabul

KABUL - Designs and achievements by university students and products of some companies were displayed in the First National Polytec-

"..."..."..."

"..."..."..."

"..."..."..."

"..."..."..."