Pakistan, US Divided on How to Initiate Afghan Peace Talks

Pakistan has cautioned the United States that “cooperation, not coercion,” is the way forward for the two countries to find a politically negotiated end to an increasingly deadly war in Afghanistan.

Washington's new strategy expressed concerns and opposed the US

ISLAMABAD - Islamabad has accused Pakistan of covertly maintaining ties with Jwa, the chief of the military institution has said.

During his four-hour stay in Pakistan, Tillerson when he undertook his inauspicious visit to Islamabad last Tuesday calibered to overcome their trust deficit and improve bilateral relations.

Aftab Ahmed Khan Sherpao, the senior political leader from the region, says Pakistan is not known, but Kochi has cautioned the United States that “cooperation,” not “coercion,” is the way forward.

Afghan peace process.

Russia has protested against the house of parliament. The Taliban have accused President Ashraf Ghani and “the people around him” of being deeply involved in corruption, saying that the Presidential Palace has changed into a “center of corruption.”

The Wolesi Jirga rejected Al- disul Rauf Ibrahimi said Ghani’s government has not done enough to help them.

They have called on government to address the problems. The deputy head of the Kochis said: “We don’t have mobile clinics, we don’t have schools, and the absence of separate classrooms.

BetterAf-Pak Ties Keep Regional Stability: Sherpao

ISLAMABAD - Islamabad has expressed concerns to the US about its strategy to kill the Taliban leaders as part of Washington’s new strategy to root out terrorism from the region.

Pakistan officials have said the government leaders in Islamabad have conveyed their concern to the US in a meeting during visit to Pakistan, in- existing such an option would kill the chances for peace.

“We insisted that it will be un- realistic to crush the Taliban leaders. How is it possible to kill them and expect them to come to the table at the same time,” a Pakistani official said Daily Times.

However, in contrast to Paki- stani officials opposition, the Afghan defense officials wel- come the remarks.

The military has put forth its support to the US for finding a politically negotiated end to the war in Afghanistan.

The Afghan government is not known, but Kochi has cautioned the United States that “cooperation,” not “coercion,” is the way forward.

Aftab Ahmed Khan Sherpao, the senior political leader from the region, says Pakistan is not known, but Kochi has cautioned the United States that “cooperation,” not “coercion,” is the way forward.

More than 72 percent of girls in the province are out of school. According to the Economic and Social Demographic Survey of 2016, the majority of girls in the province do not attend school.

Residents gave different reasons why girls remained deprived of education.

Pakistan Unwilling to Help Afghan Peace Bid: Khpalwak

JALALABAD - High Peace Council (HPC) secretary Aizam Khpalwak on Monday said that all regional and international part- ners, except Pakistan, had assured Afghanistan’s full support for the Afghan peace process. Addressing a gathering of trib- al elders to collect their views on how to maintain peace and stability in eastern Nangarhar province, Khpalwak said there was a need for country-wide calls for peace, a process started from Nangarhar.

He told the event in Jalalabad, the provincial capital, that within Pakistan, all regional coun- tries had promised support to Pakistan.

The US in its new strategy and the European Union (EU) has announced their support for the Afghan peace process.

Khpalwak said the Afghan govern- ment is striving to reach a peace settlement.

The Afghan government has put forth its support to the US for finding a politically negotiated end to the war in Afghanistan.

The Afghan government has put forth its support to the US for finding a politically negotiated end to the war in Afghanistan.

The Afghan government has put forth its support to the US for finding a politically negotiated end to the war in Afghanistan.

Pakistan Unwilling to Help Afghan Peace Bid: Khpalwak

JALALABAD - High Peace Council (HPC) secretary Aizam Khpalwak on Monday said that all regional and international part- ners, except Pakistan, had assured Afghanistan’s full support for the Afghan peace process. Addressing a gathering of trib- al elders to collect their views on how to maintain peace and stability in eastern Nangarhar province, Khpalwak said there was a need for country-wide calls for peace, a process started from Nangarhar.

He told the event in Jalalabad, the provincial capital, that within Pakistan, all regional coun- tryes have promised support to Pakistan.

The US in its new strategy and the European Union (EU) has announced their support for the Afghan peace process.

Khpalwak said the Afghan govern- ment is striving to reach a peace settlement.

The Afghan government has put forth its support to the US for finding a politically negotiated end to the war in Afghanistan.

The Afghan government has put forth its support to the US for finding a politically negotiated end to the war in Afghanistan.

The Afghan government has put forth its support to the US for finding a politically negotiated end to the war in Afghanistan.

Pakistan Unwilling to Help Afghan Peace Bid: Khpalwak

JALALABAD - High Peace Council (HPC) secretary Aizam Khpalwak on Monday said that all regional and international part- ners, except Pakistan, had assured Afghanistan’s full support for the Afghan peace process. Addressing a gathering of trib- al elders to collect their views on how to maintain peace and stability in eastern Nangarhar province, Khpalwak said there was a need for country-wide calls for peace, a process started from Nangarhar.

He told the event in Jalalabad, the provincial capital, that within Pakistan, all regional coun- tryes have promised support to Pakistan.

The US in its new strategy and the European Union (EU) has announced their support for the Afghan peace process.

Khpalwak said the Afghan govern- ment is striving to reach a peace settlement.

The Afghan government has put forth its support to the US for finding a politically negotiated end to the war in Afghanistan.

The Afghan government has put forth its support to the US for finding a politically negotiated end to the war in Afghanistan.

The Afghan government has put forth its support to the US for finding a politically negotiated end to the war in Afghanistan.

Pakistan Unwilling to Help Afghan Peace Bid: Khpalwak

JALALABAD - High Peace Council (HPC) secretary Aizam Khpalwak on Monday said that all regional and international part- ners, except Pakistan, had assured Afghanistan’s full support for the Afghan peace process. Addressing a gathering of trib- al elders to collect their views on how to maintain peace and stability in eastern Nangarhar province, Khpalwak said there was a need for country-wide calls for peace, a process started from Nangarhar.

He told the event in Jalalabad, the provincial capital, that within Pakistan, all regional coun- tryes have promised support to Pakistan.

The US in its new strategy and the European Union (EU) has announced their support for the Afghan peace process.

Khpalwak said the Afghan govern- ment is striving to reach a peace settlement.

The Afghan government has put forth its support to the US for finding a politically negotiated end to the war in Afghanistan.