KABUL - Secretary of State John Kerry has said that a trilateral meeting of US, Indian and Afghan leaders will be held next month on the sidelines of the United Nations General Assembly in New York.

Addressing a press conference with Indian Foreign Minister Sushma Swaraj in New Delhi on Tuesday, Kerry said the purpose of the meeting was to enhance co-operation among the three countries on various issues.

A decision on holding the trilateral meeting with India and Afghanistan, he said, was only being aimed to bring peace and stability to the war-torn country. If Afghanistan was a unitary state, the US would not have any say in Afghan internal issues.

He asked Pakistan to bring culprits behind Mumbai and Kabul attacks to justice. The US was ready to re-launch its military campaign against the Taliban if the Afghan government demanded so. “We cannot and will not make dis- tinctions between good and bad ter- rorists,” Kerry said. “Terror is terror, no matter where it comes from, (or) who carries it out.”

India blamed Pakistan for both att- acks. Pakistan is trying to seize the initiative in the war against terror, he said. Kerry added that India has moved against those behind the military campaign against the Taliban.

India and Pakistan have not commented yet on the NDS claim. (Pajhwok)

India Responds to Afghanistan’s Request to Equip Afghan Forces

NEW DELHI - India has re- sponded positively to a request to the Afghan authorities to equip the Afghan National Defense and Security Forces (ANDSF) it has been reported.

Indian Defense Minister, Manohar Parrikar, arrived in India, Dr. Shaukat Mahmmud Khan, aid worker said the request was made by the Afghan Army chief General Mohammad Shamek during his visit to New Delhi.

Khan was in New Delhi on Tuesday to sign the 6th Indo-Afghan border trade agreement (BF). “BF is the mechanism that envisages trade between the two countries,” Khan said. Khan added that the Indian government had responded to the Afghan Army’s request.

India and Afghanistan are one of the main markets of the Indian government. India has been offering financial and technical assistance to the Afghan government and has been helping the Afghan government in its efforts to combat terrorism.

The government of India has been offering financial and technical assistance to the Afghan government and has been helping the Afghan government in its efforts to combat terrorism.

KABUL - Chief Executive Officer Abdullah Abdul lah, on Tuesday, said that the internal security forces, in the last 10 years, have been intensifying efforts to make the Afghan police neutral.

They said that the politicization of the security forces, mainly the police, has been intensified, and that the Afghan forces have been made to modern police.

Meanwhile, the commander of Resolute Support, General Scott Miller, said that the Afghan forces have been intensified, and that the Afghan forces have been made to modern police.

“Afghan forces were doing a lot of things, but nobody was doing it,” he said. “Now, we have a proper force and they are doing their job.”

Miller added that the security forces are “doing their job” and that they are “neutralizing” the security forces.

NEW DELHI - India has re- sponded positively to a request to the Afghan authorities to equip the Afghan National Defense and Security Forces (ANDSF) it has been reported.

INVESTIGATION INTO KABUL MISHRAK ATTACKS

KABUL - A doctor who was injured in the attack on Kabul’s Mishraq market last week has been admitted to the Kabul Central Hospital.

He said the ANDSF would support efforts to establish the feasibility of three algorithm options for the exploration of both the Salang Corridor and the upgrade of the Salang Corridor, in particular "a detailed design and building the project for implementation in 2016," he said.

As the timeline for the end to the EU police mission in Afghanistan and to evaluate ways that could effectively counter the Taliban, it is almost a brigade of soldiers or police that we can obtain from getting involved in politics and instead pay them to do their duties.

The Taliban’s political goals are to be achieved through a series of initiatives, and if they can achieve them, they will try to continue in their quest for the end of the Afghan government.

The Taliban, who have been fighting against the Afghan government for years, are trying to seize the initiative in the war against terror.

The Taliban’s political goals are to be achieved through a series of initiatives, and if they can achieve them, they will try to continue in their quest for the end of the Afghan government.

The Taliban, who have been fighting against the Afghan government for years, are trying to seize the initiative in the war against terror.

The Taliban’s political goals are to be achieved through a series of initiatives, and if they can achieve them, they will try to continue in their quest for the end of the Afghan government.

The Taliban, who have been fighting against the Afghan government for years, are trying to seize the initiative in the war against terror.

The Taliban’s political goals are to be achieved through a series of initiatives, and if they can achieve them, they will try to continue in their quest for the end of the Afghan government.

The Taliban, who have been fighting against the Afghan government for years, are trying to seize the initiative in the war against terror.