Threats Posed by ISKP Loom Large

In his address to the 14th National Congress of the R.S.S., hold in New Delhi last month, Mr. Modi, the 24th prime minister of the BJP, reaffirmed his party's commitment to the cause of Hindu Rashtra, an undivided India, and the Hindu civilization. He also referred to the need to address the issue of the 1971 Bangladesh war and to protect the interests of the Hindus in Bangladesh.

Mr. Modi's statement on the issue of the 1971 Bangladesh war, which he described as a "tragic episode," was seen as a signal of the BJP's intentions to address the issue of the war in a more assertive manner. He also highlighted the role of the R.S.S. in the war and its contribution to the liberation of the country.

The BJP has been criticized for its close ties with the R.S.S. and the Sangh Parivar, an umbrella organization of Hindu nationalist groups. The party has been accused of promoting Hindu nationalism and exclusivism, and of being anti-Muslim.

The statement on the issue of the 1971 Bangladesh war is likely to be seen as a signal of the BJP's intentions to address the issue of the war in a more assertive manner. The party has been known for its close ties with the Sangh Parivar, an umbrella organization of Hindu nationalist groups, and has been accused of promoting Hindu nationalism and exclusivism, and of being anti-Muslim.

The statement is likely to be seen as a signal of the BJP's intentions to address the issue of the war in a more assertive manner. The party has been known for its close ties with the Sangh Parivar, an umbrella organization of Hindu nationalist groups, and has been accused of promoting Hindu nationalism and exclusivism, and of being anti-Muslim.

The statement is likely to be seen as a signal of the BJP's intentions to address the issue of the war in a more assertive manner. The party has been known for its close ties with the Sangh Parivar, an umbrella organization of Hindu nationalist groups, and has been accused of promoting Hindu nationalism and exclusivism, and of being anti-Muslim.

The statement is likely to be seen as a signal of the BJP's intentions to address the issue of the war in a more assertive manner. The party has been known for its close ties with the Sangh Parivar, an umbrella organization of Hindu nationalist groups, and has been accused of promoting Hindu nationalism and exclusivism, and of being anti-Muslim.