Cut in Reliance on Foreign Aid after 2024: Ghani

KABUL - President Ashraf Ghani has said Afghanistan is in a position to stand on its own feet during the transition period (2021-2024) when the country’s reliance on international aid would decrease. The president, who inaugurated an international conference of “high-ranking officials” on Friday night at the Presidential Palace, shed light on Afghanistan’s programs with regard to its pledges at the London Conference and briefed the participants about the country’s development and economic plans for the transformation decade.

Blaze Guts Dozens of Shops, Causes $3.5m Losses

KUNDuz CITY - Dozens of shops were reduced to ashes as a huge fire swept through a market, causing losses of around $5.3 million in the capital of northern Kunduz province, an official said on Saturday. The overnight fire broke out due to a short circuit at 9.30pm and engulfed shops around the Central Square, shoppers’ union leader Sayedullah told Pajhwok Afghan News.

Regional Trade to Benefit Afghans the Most: Haqjo

KABUL – The Afghanistan Investment Support Agency (AISA) on Thursday told the sixth two-day Regional Economic Cooperation Conference on Afghanistan (RECCA) that began on Thursday in Kabul as vital for the economic development of Afghanistan and re-integrating regional economies. Mohammad Qurban Haqjo said Afghanistan should be credited for hosting the RECCA 10 years back with the main purpose to boost economic activities on regional level something that would ultimately benefit Afghanistan the most.

Haqjo, however, suggested the RECCA should have a secretariat to implement agreements and pledge made in the summit. He said the RECCA’s previous seven summits lacked practical and political level implementation of the pledges and Afghanistan should stress in the ongoing meetings Implementation of economic cooperation pledges. The 6th RECCA summit titled “The Silk Roads Through Afghanistan” got underway in capital Kabul on Thursday. The event began at 9.30am. Government officials, including those from the (More on Pn-
