The Ministry of Justice and the Office of Administrative Affairs has taken immediate measures to provide the legal grounds for the implementation of the proposals by the ERC, read the Taliban. But a border police official, who spoke on condition of anonymity, said Taliban militants took control of the area, posing a threat to the local residents. He said 10 policemen were killed and three others were arrested. The Taliban claimed that the police had used shelling on the location, while the police denied the claims.

Shabkh Bazaar, located in the southern part of the province, was the site of aTB Taliba massacre, where more than 100 civilians were killed and wounded.

According to another report, seven civilians were killed in Zarghun Shah and Barmal districts of Nangarhar province.

Shabkh Bazaar massacre

A massacre took place on a population of 20,000, who had been handed over to the Taliban for the past three years. However, it was recently recruited by Al- Qaeda for the purpose of recruiting local people, as well as to supply the group with food and drugs for their activities.

On Saturday night, the insurgents attacked the border crossing near Al-Khodhali, shutting down the border crossing and preventing the Afghan border control from entering the country.

A representative from the provincial council of Al-Khodhali, who asked the government to deal with the situation, said that the government had surrendered to the Taliban and that the border crossing had been closed for several days.

Shabkh Bazaar massacre

A massacre took place on a population of 20,000, who had been handed over to the Taliban for the past three years. However, it was recently recruited by Al-Qaeda for the purpose of recruiting local people, as well as to supply the group with food and drugs for their activities.

On Saturday night, the insurgents attacked the border crossing near Al-Khodhali, shutting down the border crossing and preventing the Afghan border control from entering the country.

A representative from the provincial council of Al-Khodhali, who asked the government to deal with the situation, said that the government had surrendered to the Taliban and that the border crossing had been closed for several days. However, the Taliban have continued to attack the area, killing at least 10 civilians in the last two months.

Security forces and civilians have been killed during these operations by the Taliban and other militant groups. In addition, the security forces have suffered heavy losses during these operations. The government has been criticized for not taking adequate measures to prevent these attacks.

A spokesperson for the Independent Election Commission (IEC) said that the commission had received complaints from the election bodies in the country, which had been referred to the police for investigation.

The IEC had received complaints from the election bodies in the country, which had been referred to the police for investigation. However, the police have not taken any action to investigate these complaints.

The IEC has also taken a number of measures to ensure the security of the election process, including the deployment of additional security forces and the establishment of a Special Investigation Unit to investigate complaints.

Police reports

A police report was submitted to the provincial authorities in which the police stated that they had received complaints from local residents about the activities of the Taliban in the area.

The police also stated that they had received information about a group of Taliban militants who were operating in the area and that they had been able to arrest some of the militants.

In addition, the police had also arrested a number of Taliban fighters who were operating in the area, including a number of Taliban leaders.

The police had also arrested a number of Taliban fighters who were operating in the area, including a number of Taliban leaders.