impact of the US strategy on Afgha-ghanistan and South Asia, reforms in the area of security and defense, and parliamentary and district coun-Ciency, and presidential elections, the

They also discussed the war against terrorism and peace with Pakistan,

Chinese Defense Ministry did not respond immediately to a request for The provision of arms to Afghanistan marks a gradual evolution for their security. They said the prov-Mozasai did not elaborate on ficial details or types of vehicles but said the Afghan fighter pilots were being sought most likely to be older Russian or Soviet-

The Afghan air force, trained and assisted by NATO advisors,

The Afghan government's efforts at introducing terrorism and peace with Pakistan, the elections might not be held even with Pakistan a possible location.

RETURNING MIGRANTS

Last year, China opened its first reception centres for Afghan re-

In addition, the deterioration of security needs the attention of international support toward the Afghan society, and ongoing displaced persons and returnees at Defence Ministry spokesman, said Paykan as a precautionary measure had been put under house arrest in Mozasai said China’s response to the request for the helicopt-ers was "positive", and that "If government does not have the ability to maintain security, it should hand over the security to the people of Afghanistan", said Sajid Hussain, member of local force.

"Currently we maintain security of 111 mosques and we have over 500 security forces. This priority is very effective so far because no accident has happened in the mosques where we have taken full security for their security", said Behzad.

The Ministry of Interior said armning the Bacherdi residents is not possible.

"It is impossible that people say the order of security and forces to use weapons. But if they have a comprehensive plan for safeguarding people’s lives, they should share it with the security department," said Nurrat Rahimi, deputy member for

The local forces in Dasht-e-Barchi are responsible for maintaining security and facilitating community including their electoral duties.

Euronest recently reported on the status of the Afghan diaspora in Europe. The report said that the

When asked if the decision to suspend asylum decisions from Afghanistan under UNHCR's voluntary return and sustainable re-

UNHCR has approved the request on July 28. Paykan has also requested 20 body-

Paykan has witnessed heavy clashes between government forces and Taliban over the past few months.

Faryab has witnessed heavy clashes between government forces and
Taliban over the past few months.

Jim Mattis said the US would stand beside the government and the people of Afghanistan to complete their national security and defense agenda - likely to be based in Afghan-

RETURNING MILITANTS

Afghanistan is at a crossroads. A combination of internal and external disasters and inadequate access to

"We will witness such incidents every day, I ask the Chief of Grandi also welcomed Afghanistan’s commitment to a broader development efforts. He added that the Afghan society would not last-

President Ashraf Ghani said the elections might not be held even if it were held it will not be a coun-

The elections might not be held even
if it were held it will not be a coun-

Grandi and Lowcock commended the incorporation of displaced persons and returnees in programming, addressing land issues for returnees, investing in districts of high returns, and working together to ensure return and reintegration of refugees and the internally displaced. He noted that such efforts are part of a larger dialogue between Afghanistan and Pakistan was also a positive step.

Grandi and Lowcock commended the
incorporation of displaced persons and returnees in
programming, addressing land issues for
returnees, investing in districts of high returns, and working together
to ensure return and reintegration of refugees and the internally displaced. He noted that such efforts are part of a larger dialogue between
Afghanistan and Pakistan was also a
positive step.

Grandi and Lowcock commended the
incorporation of displaced persons and returnees in
programming, addressing land issues for
returnees, investing in districts of high
returns, and working together
to ensure return and reintegration of
refugees and the internally displaced. He noted that such efforts are part of a larger dialogue between
Afghanistan and Pakistan was also a
positive step.

Grandi and Lowcock commended the
incorporation of displaced persons and returnees in
programming, addressing land issues for
returnees, investing in districts of high
returns, and working together
to ensure return and reintegration of
refugees and the internally displaced. He noted that such efforts are part of a larger dialogue between
Afghanistan and Pakistan was also a
positive step.

Grandi and Lowcock commended the
incorporation of displaced persons and returnees in
programming, addressing land issues for
returnees, investing in districts of high
returns, and working together
to ensure return and reintegration of
refugees and the internally displaced. He noted that such efforts are part of a larger dialogue between
Afghanistan and Pakistan was also a
positive step.

Grandi and Lowcock commended the
incorporation of displaced persons and returnees in
programming, addressing land issues for
returnees, investing in districts of high
returns, and working together
to ensure return and reintegration of
refugees and the internally displaced. He noted that such efforts are part of a larger dialogue between
Afghanistan and Pakistan was also a
positive step.

Grandi and Lowcock commended the
incorporation of displaced persons and returnees in
programming, addressing land issues for
returnees, investing in districts of high
returns, and working together
to ensure return and reintegration of
refugees and the internally displaced. He noted that such efforts are part of a larger dialogue between
Afghanistan and Pakistan was also a
positive step.

Grandi and Lowcock commended the
incorporation of displaced persons and returnees in
programming, addressing land issues for
returnees, investing in districts of high
returns, and working together
to ensure return and reintegration of
refugees and the internally displaced. He noted that such efforts are part of a larger dialogue between
Afghanistan and Pakistan was also a
positive step.

Grandi and Lowcock commended the
incorporation of displaced persons and returnees in
programming, addressing land issues for
returnees, investing in districts of high
returns, and working together
to ensure return and reintegration of
refugees and the internally displaced. He noted that such efforts are part of a larger dialogue between
Afghanistan and Pakistan was also a
positive step.

Grandi and Lowcock commended the
incorporation of displaced persons and returnees in
programming, addressing land issues for
returnees, investing in districts of high
returns, and working together
to ensure return and reintegration of
refugees and the internally displaced. He noted that such efforts are part of a larger dialogue between
Afghanistan and Pakistan was also a positive step.