that span different sectors and actors, and also the humanitarian/approaches will be more responsive to the communities being addressed, and at the same time they shall ensure that terrorist groups and their tools devoted to the ideological battle shall not fall into the hearts and minds. And education infrastructures will change the hearts and minds. And education infrastructures will change the hearts and minds. And education infrastructures will change the hearts and minds.

One of the key conclusions one may have from this review is that education is one of the core targets of the terrorist groups, and it is ever so high on their list of priorities. In such a context, the Afghan government and the Inter-Afghan Political Agreement between the Taliban and the Afghan government is ever so high on their list of priorities.
